

*Northwest New Mexico Teacher
Education Program*

Dine College

Highlights

Enrollment 1,836

(30% increase in the past two years)

- Students

- 75% female, 25% male
 - 95% Navajo, 2% Other Tribal Nation, 3% Non-native
 - 862 Full time, 988 Part time
 - 4 international, 33 Veterans/Armed Forces,
 - 8 Graduate Students
-
- First tribally controlled college campus in the State of Utah
 - New Microcampus in Dilkon, AZ -coming soon
 - Offering first graduate program -Masters of Biology (Fall 2022)
 - Doubled funding in research grants
-

Overview

*Bachelor of Arts Program
preparing teachers in K-8
schools and communities
through innovative multicultural/ bilingual
teaching strategies and methods for diverse learners*

- Kimberly Dominguez, Director
Former Principal & HR Director
- 5th Year of NMPED grant as a result of Yazzie/Martinez lawsuit
- Three areas of focus
Fast Track BA Program
Train Current Teachers
High School

Demographics

Total Students

- 25 students currently enrolled
- Training current teachers
- Our students are teaching in their communities
 - 82% of students stay in their community
- MOU's w/Schools
 - San Juan College
 - Central Consolidated School District
 - Albuquerque Public Schools

Our Program

*Higher Learning
Commission Accredited*

1

Multicultural Education

- BA
- Teacher Training
- Teacher Certification

2

Navajo American
Language Institute

3

Our Knowledge in Dine
Teacher Education Program adapted to
multi-culture education

Next Focus

- Creating a Dual Credit Pipeline
Increase interest in teaching and be able to shorten graduation time
- Expand Current MOU's (CCSD, San Juan College, APS)
Include Gallup McKinley School District

Ahe'hee
Thank you for your time

Northwest New Mexico
Teacher Education Program