Wednesday, June 26

Senator Wirth invited the General Services Department (GSD) and the City of Santa Fe to deliver brief statements, citing recent developments in the review process.

GSD Statement

Alexis Johnson, GSD, announced that the Facilities Management Division of the GSD is withdrawing from the State-Local Government Historic Review Board proceedings to pursue a formal design process for the proposed site of the state's Executive Office Building (EOB).

City of Santa Fe Statement

Heather Lamboy, interim director, Planning and Land Use Department, City of Santa Fe, thanked the board for its work and expressed the city's support for the pursuit of a collaborative design and planning process.

Senator Wirth stated that, as a result of the GSD's withdrawal from the proceedings, no presentations would be heard at this meeting. He expressed support for moving forward with a collaborative design and planning process for the site. Board members briefly discussed options for proceeding with a collaborative design effort for the EOB.
