

Senior Fiscal Analyst

The Legislative Finance Committee is recruiting to fill a Senior Fiscal Analyst position. We are recruiting for motivated and talented professionals who are interested in budget and public policy related to health and human services. Fiscal analysts are responsible for developing state agency budget recommendations and conducting policy analysis and oversight.

The LFC makes budgetary recommendations to the Legislature for funding state government, higher education and public schools in addition to its accountability and oversight role. Eight senators and eight representatives comprise the LFC, with political parties represented in proportion to membership in each house of the legislature. The Committee employs professional Program Evaluators to determine whether taxpayer expenditures are producing desired results and to recommend improvements in state government. The LFC also maintains a permanent staff of economists who participate in the state's revenue estimating process and program evaluators who develop, lead, and conduct independent program evaluations and special research studies.

Desirable Qualifications

Bachelor's degree required; an advanced degree in law, economics, finance, business, accounting, or public administration is desirable. Knowledge of performance-based budgeting, policy and budget analysis, governmental accounting, finance, spreadsheet and database applications, and statistical and mathematical procedures such as cost-benefit analysis is desirable. State government experience in health and human services is desirable. Strong written and oral communication skills are essential.

Preference may be given to applicants with legislative and/or budget and policy experience.

Compensation and Reporting Relationship

Fiscal Analysts work under the direction of the Deputy Director for Budget and Fiscal Review and the Director of LFC. This position is exempt from civil service law and is non-partisan. Annual compensation is dependent on experience and includes a comprehensive benefits package available to all state employees.
