"Section 78. TEMPORARY PROVISION--VOLUNTARY TEACHER INCENTIVE PAY PILOT PROGRAM --

A. The "voluntary teacher incentive pay pilot program" is created under the state board of education. The program shall operate for the 2001-2002 through 2003-2004 school years. The purpose of the pilot program is to determine if providing incentive pay to teachers who demonstrate teaching effectiveness or who acquire advanced skills in best teaching practice will improve the academic achievement of students in selected schools. The pilot program is voluntary and shall include a program evaluation component. The teacher incentive pay advisory committee and the state department of public education shall provide periodic reports to the appropriate legislative interim committees and shall provide a final report to the legislature.

B. The governor, the speaker of the house of representatives and the president pro tempore of the senate shall name a "teacher incentive pay advisory committee" to make recommendations to the state board of education on the design and implementation of a voluntary teacher incentive pay pilot program, including a requirement that for a school to participate, at least seventy percent of its teachers must agree to participate. A value-added assessment methodology shall be used to determine teaching effectiveness compared to student academic achievement.

C. If the number of teachers at volunteer schools exceeds the available funding, the state board of education shall select through a lottery process enough participants to use available funding.

D. Voluntary teacher incentive pay shall be provided as follows:

(1) four hundred dollars ($400) to all teachers in those participating public schools that are in the top ten percent of improving probationary schools as ranked in accordance with the Incentives for School Improvement Act and based on the annual tests of students administered by districts as required by Section 22-1-6 NMSA 1978;

(2) two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) to teachers who meet the teaching effectiveness criteria as assessed by their students' test scores as shown on pre- and post-criterion-referenced or terra nova norm-referenced tests as assessed by the value-added methodology as determined by the teacher incentive pay advisory committee; and

(3) a one-time incentive of three thousand dollars ($3,000) for teachers who have received national board for professional teaching standards certification or for teachers who otherwise meet standards of best teaching practice as determined by criteria established by the teacher incentive pay advisory committee.

E. Implementation of the pilot program is contingent on funding."

23. Renumber the succeeding sections accordingly.

24. On page 131, line 7, strike "services" and insert in lieu thereof "service".

25. On page 131, line 10, after "periodic" insert "and annual".

27. On page 132, between lines 16 and 17, insert the following new section:

"Section 82. TEMPORARY PROVISION--CRITERION-REFERENCED TESTING.--It is the intent of the legislature that the state department of public education use the most educationally effective and cost-effective criterion-referenced test available. The department shall compare the educational and fiscal merits of purchasing criterion-referenced tests and customizing them for New Mexico or developing New Mexico-specific tests."

28. Renumber succeeding sections accordingly.
