

1 A MEMORIAL

2 PROCLAIMING JANUARY 2013 AS "NATIONAL MENTORING MONTH" AT THE 3 NEW MEXICO SENATE.

4
5 WHEREAS, the residents of New Mexico recognize that 6 everyone's success depends on helping children to succeed in 7 school and reach their full potential in life and on 8 realizing that young people need a solid foundation of 9 support to help them become well-educated, confident and 10 productive citizens; and

11 WHEREAS, mentoring is a proven effective strategy that 12 helps children and young adults by matching them with caring, 13 responsible adults who can provide guidance and direction and 14 build confidence; and

15 WHEREAS, mentors build character, encourage success,
16 boost confidence, lift expectations and inspire young people
17 to do their best; and

18 WHEREAS, mentors serve as friends, role models, teachers
19 and sources of stability during a critical time in a child's 20 life; and

21 WHEREAS, research shows that mentoring has beneficial
22 long-term effects on youth by increasing academic engagement
23 and decreasing the likelihood of substance abuse and other 24 harmful behaviors; and

25 WHEREAS, mentoring strengthens the state's economic and

1 social well-being by helping young people reach their 2 potential while helping maintain healthy families and 3 promoting more vibrant communities; and

4 WHEREAS, residents of New Mexico are making a profound 5 difference in the lives of young people by serving as 6 mentors, supported by many private- and public-sector 7 organizations that offer mentoring opportunities; and

8 WHEREAS, many children in New Mexico are in need of a 9 caring adult mentor, and closing this mentoring gap will take 10 more investment, partnerships and volunteers that are ready 11 to make a difference in a child's life; and

12 WHEREAS, President Obama's administration is working to 13 expand mentoring and other volunteer opportunities across the 14 United States through the United We Serve initiative, the 15 corporation for national and community service and other 16 agencies and programs; and

17 WHEREAS, "National Mentoring Month" is an opportunity to 18 raise public awareness on the importance of mentoring, to 19 recognize the dedication of individuals that serve as mentors
20 and to encourage more citizens to help build a brighter
21 future of New Mexico's youth through mentoring;

22 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE 23 STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the month of January 2013 be 24 proclaimed "National Mentoring Month" in the New Mexico senate
25 and that the people of New Mexico be encouraged to recognize
