SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Memorial 85 (SM 85) encourages the Public Education Department (PED) to include feedback from families as one of criterion for the evaluation of school leaders. SM 85 also encourages that the PED include in their school leader evaluation the criteria measurements outlined in the memorial.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

The memorial states that school districts must set high standards in licensing and evaluating potential school leaders in ascertaining which individuals possess the qualifications need to accomplish effective school leadership.
