10 A JOINT MEMORIAL

11 RECOGNIZING THE CONTRIBUTIONS AND ACHIEVEMENTS OF INEZ BUSHNER
12 GILL AND MARALYN BUDKE BY APPROVING THE PLACEMENT OF A NEW 13 MEXICO HISTORIC WOMEN'S MARKER AT THE STATE CAPITOL.

15 WHEREAS, Inez Bushner Gill and Maralyn Budke dedicated 16 their professional careers to New Mexico state government and,
17 ultimately, to the people of New Mexico; and

18 WHEREAS, during nearly thirty years of state employment,
19 Inez was a moving force in the modernization of state
20 government, helping to develop many of the fiscal procedures 21 now governing state taxation and revenue, school finance and 22 public indebtedness and also helping the legislature better 23 understand the financial needs of state government; and

24 WHEREAS, her fiscal expertise influenced governors,
25 legislators and journalists; and

1 WHEREAS, Inez, recognizing the need to develop young
2 people's interest in careers in government service, worked 3 tirelessly to establish the first student intern program; and

4 WHEREAS, when the legislative council service was founded
5 in 1951, Mrs. Gill, one of the original four staffers, became 6 the assistant director, and she wrote the first comprehensive 7 index to revenue sources imposed by the state, authored 8 legislative publications and drafted legislation, including the 9 creation of the state records center and archives, the State
10 Purchasing Act of 1967 and other important government, tax and 11 finance legislation; and

12 WHEREAS, while at the legislative council service, Inez
13 Gill helped with the creation of the department of finance and 14 administration and was the midwife of the legislative finance 15 committee, serving as its first legislative fiscal analyst and 16 principal staff for eight years before working to see that the 17 committee was given staff separate from the legislative council 18 service; and

19 WHEREAS, as the key staff person for the legislative 20 finance committee, Inez served as the boss and mentor of the 21 equally legendary and incomparable Maralyn Budke, who began her 22 career as an intern for Mrs. Gill; and

23 WHEREAS, Maralyn began her legislative career as an 24 assistant fiscal analyst with the legislative finance committee 25 when it was still under the legislative council service, and

1 when it was created as a separate committee with its own staff,
2 Inez stayed with the legislative council service while Maralyn
3 moved to the position of executive secretary to the legislative 4 finance committee until she was recruited by Governor David 5 Cargo to work on his staff; and

6 WHEREAS, Ms. Budke later rejoined the legislative finance 7 committee staff as its director, serving in that position for 8 fourteen years until her retirement in 1982, during which time
9 she worked tirelessly to ensure each year's state budget was 10 balanced and affordable, proving herself to be a brilliant
11 strategist and consummate professional in implementing 12 independent legislative fiscal oversight and committee
13 processes that are still in place; and

14 WHEREAS, after her initial retirement, Ms. Budke returned 15 to state government as Governor Garrey Carruthers' chief of 16 staff, receiving an initial salary of one dollar ($1.00) a 17 year; and

18 WHEREAS, during Maralyn's tenure with the legislative 19 finance committee, the state's first motor pool was 20 established, control of the state's hospitals was consolidated
21 and the university of New Mexico school of medicine and the 22 university hospital were created; and

23 WHEREAS, Maralyn's last service to the state was serving
24 as the chair of the higher education funding formula task 25 force; and

1 WHEREAS, Inez and Maralyn are considered to have been two 2 of the most important and influential women ever to serve in 3 New Mexico government, always displaying the highest principles
4 and ethical standards; and

5 WHEREAS, it is fitting that the contributions of these two 6 women to the state and the residents of New Mexico be 7 recognized by the placement of a New Mexico women's historic 8 marker on the state capitol grounds, the funding of which will 9 be raised through the New Mexico women's forum; and

10 WHEREAS, New Mexico legislative council policies require
11 that the placement of such an historic marker be approved by a 12 two-thirds' vote in each house upon the recommendation of the 13 capitol recognition subcommittee; and

14 WHEREAS, that subcommittee met in 2012 and approved the 15 placement of the historic marker on the state capitol grounds,
16 reserving the right to group the marker with similar tributes
17 to others at a later date;

18 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE 19 STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the historic marker recognizing Inez
20 Bushner Gill and Maralyn Budke as New Mexico historic women be 21 placed on the state capitol grounds;

22 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all efforts be made to hold 23 the unveiling ceremony on March 8, 2013, which is 24 "International Women's Day".
