1 offices in San Juan county. The judges of divisions two, five 2 and seven shall reside and maintain their principal offices in 3 McKinley county."

4 SECTION 3. A new section of Chapter 34, Article 6 NMSA
5 1978 is enacted to read:

6 "[NEW MATERIAL] DISTRICT WATER COURTS.--

7 A. A district water court shall be established in 8 each of Dona Ana and San Juan counties.

9 B. The district water court shall be a civil court 10 that shall hear all cases relating to water and other civil 11 cases as well. The water court shall give priority to water 12 cases.

13 C. District water judges shall be nominated and 14 appointed in the same manner as other district judges and shall 15 be subject to elections by voters in the county, as provided in 16 Article 6 of the constitution of New Mexico. Current and 17 former district judges may apply for appointment to the 18 district water court. Persons residing outside of the county 19 may apply for appointment on the condition that they reside in 20 the county immediately upon appointment.

21 D. Upon taking office, a district water judge shall 22 be expected to devote substantial time to the study of water 23 law and other water-related subjects, especially as related to 24 the arid western regions of the United States. District water
25 judges are encouraged to confer and consult with other district

2 E. A district water judge shall not permit ex parte
3 communications, but a district water judge may hold informal
4 discussion and planning sessions open to all parties, members
5 of the public and government agencies, with appropriate advance
6 notice to the public.

7 F. District water judges shall not be subject to a 8 peremptory challenge pursuant to Section 38-3-9 NMSA 1978 or 9 Rule 1-088.1 NMRA in water cases. In water cases, district 10 water judges shall not be subject to excusal for cause on the 11 grounds that they consume water or have water rights or an 12 interest in property within the county. A district water judge
13 may request a special master, a water judge from another
14 district or a judge appointed by the supreme court to hear 15 particular matters where the district water judge might be 16 perceived to have a significant conflict of interest. In other 17 civil cases, a judge shall be subject to excusal pursuant to 18 Section 38-3-9 NMSA 1978 or Rule 1-088.1 NMRA."

19 SECTION 4. APPROPRIATION.--Nine hundred thousand dollars 20 ($900,000) is appropriated from the general fund to the 21 administrative office of the courts for expenditure in fiscal 22 year 2015 and subsequent fiscal years to add two new judgeships
23 for district water courts, one in Dona Ana county and one in 24 San Juan county. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance 25 remaining at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the
