SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Memorial 7 requests that the Public Education Department encourage all school districts and charter school food services directors to donate excess school meals to public or nonprofit organizations that feed the hungry and the homeless. The joint memorial also tasks ALTSD, the Human Services Department, the Environment Department, the Public Education Department, the Higher Education Department, the Children, Youth and Families Department, and relevant nonprofit organizations with forming a working group to develop a plan to maximize food redistribution during the 2014 interim.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

No fiscal impact.
