4 magistrate district where the cause of action arose.

5 B. A magistrate has jurisdiction to sit in any 6 action arising in any other magistrate district when designated 7 for a specific period of time by a district judge because of 8 the unavailability of a magistrate in that magistrate district.
9 A magistrate acting in another magistrate district by 10 designation pursuant to this subsection shall include the cases 11 heard by designation in the magistrate's own reports to the 12 administrative office of the courts, indicating on the reports
13 that the magistrate's jurisdiction is by designation.

14 C. In a criminal action in which a magistrate has 15 territorial jurisdiction over the offense pursuant to this 16 section, the magistrate court has personal jurisdiction over 17 the defendant for the purpose of service of process upon the 18 defendant wherever the defendant resides or may be found within 19 the state.

20 D. In a civil action arising within the 21 magistrate's territorial jurisdiction, the magistrate court has 22 personal jurisdiction over the defendant for the purpose of 23 service of process upon the defendant wherever the defendant
24 resides or may be found within the state.
