INFORMATION.--

A. All financial and other records of the association shall be made available during regular business hours for examination by a lot owner within ten business days of [~~the~~] a written request.

B. The association shall not charge a fee for making financial and other records available for review. The association may charge a [~~reasonable~~] fee of not more than ten cents ($ .10) per page for copies.

C. As used in this section, "financial and other records" includes:

- (1) the declaration of the association;
- (2) the name, address and telephone number of the association's designated agent;
- (3) the bylaws of the association;
- (4) the names and addresses of all association members;
- (5) minutes of all meetings of the association's lot owners and board for the previous five years, other than executive sessions, and records of all actions taken by a committee in place of the board or on behalf of the association for the previous five years;
- (6) the operating budget for the current fiscal year;
- (7) current assessments, including both

regular and special assessments;

(8) financial statements and accounts, including bank account statements, transaction registers, association-provided service or utility records and amounts held in reserve;

(9) the most recent financial audit or review, if any;

(10) all current contracts entered into by the association or the board on behalf of the association; ~~and~~

(11) current insurance policies, including company names, policy limits, deductibles, additional named insureds and expiration dates for property, general liability and association director and officer professional liability, and fidelity policies; and

(12) any electronic record of action taken by the board.

D. The failure of an association to provide access to the financial and other records within ten business days after receipt of a written request creates a rebuttable presumption that the association willfully failed to comply with the Homeowner Association Act. A lot owner that is denied access to financial and other records is entitled to the greater of the actual damages incurred for the association's willful failure to comply with this subsection or fifty dollars ($50.00) per calendar day, starting on the eleventh business day after the association's receipt of the written request."

SECTION 3. Section 47-16-7 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2013, Chapter 122, Section 7) is amended to read:

"47-16-7. BOARD MEMBERS AND OFFICERS--DUTIES--BUDGET.--

A. Except as provided in the community documents or other provisions of the Homeowner Association Act, the board acts on behalf of the association. In the performance of their duties, officers and members of the board shall exercise, if appointed by the declarant, the degree of care and loyalty required of a fiduciary of the lot owners and, if elected by the lot owners, ordinary and reasonable care free from any undisclosed conflict of interest.

B. Within ninety days after being elected or appointed to the board, each board member shall certify in writing to the secretary of the association that the member:

(1) has read the community documents;

(2) will work to uphold the community documents and policies to the best of the member's ability; and

(3) will faithfully discharge the member's duties to the association.

C. A board member who does not file the written certification pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall be suspended from the board until the member complies with Subsection B of this section.

D. The association shall retain each board member's

.212157.1

Amendments: new = →bold, blue, highlight↔
delete = →bold, red, highlight, strikethrough↔

written certification for inspection by lot owners for five years after the board member's election or appointment. The failure of an association to have a board member's written certification on file does not affect the validity of any action taken by the board or any protections provided to board members under the:

(1) Homeowner Association Act; or

(2) Nonprofit Corporation Act, if the association is organized under the Nonprofit Corporation Act.

[B-] E. The board or the lot owners, as provided for in the community documents, shall adopt a budget annually. Within thirty calendar days after adoption of any proposed budget for the association, the board shall provide a [summary] copy of the budget to all the lot owners.

F. The board shall provide to all lot owners a statement included with a copy of the annual budget listing all fees and fines that may be charged to a lot owner by the association or any management company retained by the association to act on behalf of the association, including charges for a disclosure certificate pursuant to Subsection H of Section 47-16-12 NMSA 1978.

G. Any management contract negotiated between the board and a management company retained by the association to act on behalf of the association shall include:

(1) a disclosure to the board of any existing relationships the management company has with any vendor or contractor for the association from which a conflict of interest may arise; and

(2) a list of all fees to be charged to the association or lot owners by the management company during the term of the contract."

SECTION 4. Section 47-16-9 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2013, Chapter 122, Section 9) is amended to read:

"47-16-9. PROXY AND ABSENTEE VOTING--BALLOT COUNTING.--

A. The association shall provide for votes to be cast in person, by absentee ballot or by proxy and may provide for voting by some other form of delivery.

B. Vote by proxy is allowed for lot owner meetings. The proxy vote shall:

(1) be dated and executed by a lot owner, but if a lot is owned by more than one person, each owner of the lot may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the lot through a duly executed proxy, but in no case shall the total vote cast be more than that allocated to the lot under the declaration;

(2) allow for revocation if notice of revocation is provided to the person presiding over a lot owner meeting; and

(3) be valid only for the meeting at which it is cast.

Amendments: new = →bold, blue, highlight←
delete = →bold, red, highlight, strikethrough←

C. If proxy voting is utilized at a lot owner meeting, a person shall not pay a company or person to collect proxy votes.

D. Where directors or officers are to be elected by members, the bylaws may provide that such elections may be conducted by mail.

E. Votes cast by proxy and by absentee ballot are valid for the purpose of establishing a quorum.

F. Ballots, if used, shall be counted by a neutral third party or by a committee of volunteers. The volunteers shall be selected or appointed at an open meeting, in a fair manner, by the chair of the board or another person presiding during that portion of the meeting. The volunteers shall not be board members and, in the case of a contested election for a board position, shall not be candidates.

G. Nothing in this section shall be considered in conflict with or a replacement of voting member councils or representative voting systems created by the community documents."

SECTION 5. Section 47-16-10 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2013, Chapter 122, Section 10) is amended to read:

"47-16-10. FINANCIAL AUDIT.--

~~[A. Unless any provision in the community documents requires an annual audit by a certified public accountant, the board of directors of an association managing a master planned~~

~~community or a development consisting of one hundred or more lots shall provide for an annual financial audit, review or compilation of the association. The audit, review or compilation shall be completed no later than one hundred eighty days after the end of the association's fiscal year and shall be made available upon request to the members within thirty days after its completion.~~

~~B. Unless otherwise provided in the community documents, in an association managing a development consisting of fewer than one hundred lots, upon a majority vote of all of the lot owners]~~ At least every three years, the board shall provide for a financial audit, review or compilation of the association's records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles by an independent certified public accountant and shall provide that the cost thereof be assessed as a common expense. The audit, review or compilation shall be made available to lot owners within thirty calendar days of its completion."

SECTION 6. Section 47-16-12 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2013, Chapter 122, Section 12) is amended to read:

"47-16-12. SALE OF LOTS--DISCLOSURE CERTIFICATE.--

A. Unless exempt pursuant to Subsection F of this section, prior to closing, a lot owner shall furnish to a purchaser copies of:

- (1) the declaration of the association, other than the plats and plans;

(2) the bylaws of the association;

(3) any covenants, conditions and restrictions applicable to the lot;

(4) the rules of the association; and

(5) a disclosure certificate from the association.

B. Within ten business days after receipt of a written request from a lot owner or the lot owner's representative, the association shall furnish a disclosure certificate containing the information necessary to enable the lot owner to comply with the provisions of this section. A lot owner providing a disclosure certificate pursuant to Subsection A of this section shall not be liable to the purchaser for any erroneous information provided by the association and included in the disclosure certificate.

C. A purchaser shall not be liable for any unpaid assessment or fee greater than the amount, prorated to the date of closing, set forth in the disclosure certificate prepared by the association.

D. A lot owner shall not be liable to a purchaser for the failure or delay of the association to provide the disclosure certificate in a timely manner.

E. The information contained in the disclosure certificate shall be current as of the date on which the disclosure certificate is furnished to the lot owner by the association.

F. A disclosure certificate shall not be required in the case of a disposition:

- (1) pursuant to court order;
- (2) by a government or governmental agency;
- (3) by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure; or
- (4) that may be canceled at any time and for any reason by the purchaser without penalty.

G. The statements contained in the disclosure certificate pursuant to Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection M of Section 47-16-2 NMSA 1978 shall only be valid for sixty days from their creation. Beginning sixty-one days after the creation of the disclosure certificate, the lot owner may request that the association update any changes to statements contained in the disclosure certificate pursuant to Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection M of Section 47-16-2 NMSA 1978. Upon a lot owner's request for changes to statements contained in the disclosure certificate pursuant to this subsection, the association shall provide the updated information within three business days of the lot owner's request and may impose a reasonable fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00). The updated information shall only be valid for sixty days from the update.

Notwithstanding any local ordinance or ordinance enacted by a home rule municipality, an association may impose reasonable charges not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300) for preparation of a disclosure certificate as required by the Homeowner Association Act, to be collected at the time of closing; provided that the transaction closes."

SECTION 7. Section 47-16-15 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2013, Chapter 122, Section 15, as amended) is amended to read:

"47-16-15. APPLICABILITY.--

A. Except as provided in ~~[Subsections]~~ Subsection B ~~[and G]~~ of this section, the Homeowner Association Act shall apply to all homeowner associations created and existing within this state.

B. Sections 47-16-9, 47-16-10 and 47-16-14 NMSA 1978 do not apply to homeowner associations created before July 1, 2013 and that SJC do not SJC have fewer than thirty lots; provided that any amendment to the community documents of an association created before July 1, 2013 shall comply with the Homeowner Association Act.

~~[G. Except as provided in Sections 47-16-4 and 47-16-8 NMSA 1978 and Section 2 of this 2015 act, the Homeowner Association Act does not invalidate existing provisions of the articles of incorporation, declaration, bylaws or rules of a homeowner association created before July 1, 2013.~~

SECTION 8. A new section of the Homeowner Association Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] REMOVAL OF BOARD MEMBERS.--Unless a process for removal of board members is provided for in the community documents, the lot owners, by a two-thirds' vote of all lot owners present and entitled to vote at a lot owner meeting at which a quorum is present, may remove a member of the board."

SECTION 9. A new section of the Homeowner Association Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATION.--

A. The association shall hold an annual meeting at least once every thirteen months.

B. Notwithstanding a provision to the contrary in the community documents, written notice of the meeting stating the time, date and location of the annual meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered electronically, hand-delivered or sent by mail not less than ten and no more than fifty days before the meeting. If sent by mail, the notice shall be deemed to be delivered when addressed to a lot owner at the address as it appears in the association's records and deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid.

C. Unless a longer period of time is required by an

D. All lot owners shall have the right to attend and speak at all open meetings, but the board may place reasonable time restrictions on those persons speaking.

E. Any portion of a meeting may be closed only if that portion is limited to consideration of:

- (1) legal advice from an attorney for the board or association;
- (2) pending or contemplated litigation; or
- (3) personal, health or financial information about an individual member of the association, an individual employee of the association or an individual contractor for the association.

F. The association shall maintain a written copy of the minutes of all association meetings, including summaries of all agenda items and formal actions taken."

SECTION 10. A new section of the Homeowner Association Act is enacted to read:

A. Each association and each lot owner and the owner's tenants, guests and invitees shall comply with the Homeowners Association Act and the association's community documents.

B. Unless otherwise provided for in the community documents, the association may, after providing written notice and an opportunity to dispute an alleged violation other than failure to pay assessments:

(1) levy reasonable fines for violations of or failure to comply with any provision of the community documents; and

(2) suspend, for a reasonable period of time, the right of a lot owner or the lot owner's tenant, guest or invitee to use common areas and facilities of the association.

C. Prior to imposition of a fine or suspension, the board shall provide an opportunity to submit a written statement or for a hearing before the board or a committee appointed by the board by providing written notice to the person sought to be fined or suspended fourteen days prior to the hearing. Following the hearing or review of the written statement, if the board or committee, by a majority vote, does not approve a proposed fine or suspension, neither the fine nor the suspension may be imposed. Notice and a hearing are not required for violations that pose an imminent threat to public health or safety.
