AN ACT

RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT LAW; PROVIDING THAT NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENTS IN SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION, OR SEXUAL ASSAULT CASES ARE UNENFORCEABLE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

SECTION 1. [NEW MATERIAL] WORKPLACE SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION, OR SEXUAL ASSAULT CLAIMS--NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENTS AND CERTAIN ACTIONS PROHIBITED.--

.215855.1AIC February 5, 2020 (4:45pm)
A. A private employer shall not, as a term of employment, require an employee to sign a nondisclosure provision of a settlement agreement relating to a claim of sexual harassment or sexual assault in the workplace brought by the employee or prevent the employee from disclosing a claim of sexual harassment or sexual assault occurring in the workplace or at a work-related event coordinated by or through the employer.

B. This section does not prohibit a settlement agreement between an employee or former employee alleging sexual harassment or sexual assault, discrimination or retaliation from containing confidentiality provisions. A confidentiality provision is permitted when:

1. it relates to the monetary amount of a settlement; or
2. at the employee's request, it prohibits disclosure of facts that could lead to the identification of the employee.

C. At the sole request of the employee and not withstanding any other provisions of law, a settlement agreement subject to this section may contain a confidentiality provision that prevents the disclosure of factual information.
related to the underlying sexual harassment, discrimination or retaliation claim.

D. Except as provided in Subsection C of this section, a confidentiality provision in a settlement agreement subject to this section is void and unenforceable as a matter of law.

HJC

C. At the sole request of the employee, a settlement agreement subject to this section may contain a confidentiality provision that prevents the disclosure of factual information related to the underlying sexual harassment, discrimination or retaliation claim. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prevent disclosure of information that is the subject of the confidentiality provision if disclosure is required to be made in a judicial, administrative or other governmental proceeding pursuant to a valid subpoena or other applicable order as otherwise required by law.

D. Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this section, a confidentiality provision in a settlement agreement subject to this section is void and unenforceable as a matter of law.

SECTION 2. APPLICABILITY.--The provisions of this act apply to agreements entered into between a private employer and an employee or former employee on or after May 20, 2020.
