Bernalillo county commissioner from 1995 to 2002 and as an Albuquerque city councilor for district 1 from 2005 until his sudden passing; and

WHEREAS, Ken served as Albuquerque city council president in 2010, 2014 and 2018; and

WHEREAS, Ken also served the city by working toward a balanced and responsible budget as chair of the committee-of-the-whole in 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2011; and

WHEREAS, Ken was also appointed chair of Albuquerque's finance and government committee in 2012; and

WHEREAS, in addition to other boards and committees, Ken was appointed to the Albuquerque-Bernalillo county water

1 utility authority and was elected chair in 2012; and

2 WHEREAS, Ken was committed to improving the lives of 3 Albuquerque's Westside residents and the city as a whole and 4 worked tirelessly with city residents and the Albuquerque 5 police department to address public safety needs; and

6 WHEREAS, among his many efforts, Ken worked with the 7 community, the city council, mayors, governors, legislators, 8 other elected officials and local businesses to bring much-9 needed economic retail development to the Westside, offering 10 more jobs and places for people to shop near their homes; and

11 WHEREAS, Ken worked with the Westside community and 12 legislators on a number of projects, including fire station
13 7, the Patrick J. Baca library, the university of New Mexico 14 family health clinic, the Central and Unser transit center, 15 the nuevo Atrisco development and the Unser crossing project; 16 and

17 WHEREAS, other projects Ken supported include 18 improvements at the Taylor Ranch library, the Joan Jones
19 community center at Pat Hurley park, the renovated West Mesa 20 community center and the Nusenda community stadium; and

21 WHEREAS, Ken worked to bring the Jennifer Riordan spark 22 kindness sports complex to serve the growing population of 23 the Westside; and

24 WHEREAS, Ken cared about parks and places for families 25 to spend time and worked on infrastructure needs as well as

1 recreational needs throughout the city; and

2 WHEREAS, Ken contributed to beautification and driver
3 and pedestrian safety on the Westside with median landscaping
4 and traffic calming measures on Unser boulevard, Ladera drive 5 and a number of residential streets in district 1; and

6 WHEREAS, Ken supported public improvement districts,
7 including the lower petroglyphs public improvement district, 8 as well as a medical campus for the underserved areas of the 9 Westside; and

10 WHEREAS, Ken enjoyed spending time with people over 11 salsa and chips with a cold iced tea; and
