SUMMARY

Synopsis of Memorial

Senate Memorial 21 recognizes the group Hispanics Enjoying Camping, Hunting, and the Outdoors (HECHO) for its role in ensuring Hispanic Americans and Hispano traditional uses of land are included in decisions about public lands and waters. The memorial expresses support for the creation of a public lands conservation council of Hispanic leaders to build capacity and create a formal network of Hispanic public lands leaders to increase participation and representation of Hispanics in policy and decision-making surrounding use and conservation of public lands.
