4 dollars ($124,000,000) in exports from New Mexico; and

5 WHEREAS, in total, more than one thousand two hundred jobs 6 in New Mexico are supported by Taiwan-affiliated companies and 7 the exports of goods and services to Taiwan; and

8 WHEREAS, four co-sponsors plus one hundred fifty-seven
9 members of congress signed a letter to United States trade 10 representative Robert E. Lighthizer on December 19, 2019, and 11 fifty United States senators signed an additional letter to him
12 on October 1, 2020, both encouraging the United States
13 government to work toward initiating negotiations on a
14 bilateral trade agreement with Taiwan, which would foster a 15 more open and fair trade environment, thereby creating greater 16 export and investment opportunities between the two countries; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, the United States under secretary of state for 19 economic growth, energy and the environment and Taiwan's
20 ministers of economic affairs and science and technology 21 jointly led the second annual United States-Taiwan economic 22 prosperity partnership dialogue on November 22, 2021, featuring 23 extensive discussions on supply chain resiliency, countering 24 economic coercion, promoting the digital economy, strengthening 25 fifth generation wireless network security and advancing
