SECTION III: NARRATIVE

BILL SUMMARY

Exempts a certified law enforcement officer authorized to carry a firearm and a commissioned law enforcement officer with the power to arrest from the required seven-day waiting period for purchase of a firearm.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

No fiscal implications to DPS.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

No significant issues to DPS.

PERFORMANCE IMPLICATIONS

Law enforcement officers, particularly those authorized to carry firearms and commissioned with the power to arrest, often require immediate access to firearms in the performance of their duties. Exempting these officers from the waiting period allows them to quickly acquire the necessary tools to protect themselves and others, particularly in urgent situations where time is of the essence, such as during active-duty assignments, investigations, or emergencies.

Law enforcement officers are already subject to rigorous background checks, training, and certification processes that ensure they are capable and qualified to handle firearms. The exemption from the waiting period acknowledges that these officers have already demonstrated their competence and responsibility in using firearms in a professional capacity.

In many states and jurisdictions, law enforcement officers are already exempt from waiting periods when purchasing firearms due to the specific nature of their duties and the extensive training and background checks they undergo. This bill would align the state's practices with other jurisdictions, ensuring consistency and fairness in the treatment of law enforcement personnel.

ADMINISTRATIVE IMPLICATIONS

No administrative implications to DPS.

CONFLICT, DUPLICATION, COMPANIONSHIP, RELATIONSHIP

No conflict, duplication, companionship or relationship to DPS.

TECHNICAL ISSUES –

No technical issues to DPS.

OTHER SUBSTANTIVE ISSUES –

No other substantive issues to DPS.

ALTERNATIVES –

Not applicable as no impact to DPS.

WHAT WILL BE THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT ENACTING THIS BILL

Status quo will remain.

AMENDMENTS –

None at this time.
