SECTION III: NARRATIVE

BILL SUMMARY

Synopsis: SB 360 amends the Safe Haven for Infants Act as follows:

- Creates an allowance for a parent or a parent's designee to relinquish an infant in infant safety devices for the relinquishment of infants, under certain conditions, without criminal prosecution for abandonment or abuse of a child in certain circumstances;
- Creates an allowance for the installation and operation of infant safety devices for the relinquishment of infants;
- Creates requirements for assessing fines for the disclosure of confidential information relating to infants relinquished pursuant to the Safe Haven for Infants Act
- Provides requirements for installation, operation and monitoring of infant safety devices;
- Provides limited immunity for a safe haven site and the safe haven site's staff;
- Requires the Children, Youth and Families Department (CYFD) to promulgate rules to implement the provisions of the safe haven for infants act;
- Defines new terms

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

SB360 does not require HCA to add any new services to New Mexico Medicaid or add administrative requirements therefore there are no fiscal impacts to HCA.

AMENDMENTS

Infants could be surrendered by a parent or other person according to the current provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act, but parents would not have the option of leaving them anonymously in a safe surrender device like the Safe Haven Baby Box.
