"SECTION 9. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] VOLUNTEER EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2030, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual, is an eligible emergency medical services volunteer and volunteers in New Mexico with an emergency medical service agency or ambulance certified by the bureau at least fifty-two times in a taxable year may claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's tax liability for that taxable year imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act. The tax credit provided in this section may be referred to as the "volunteer emergency medical services income tax credit".

B. The volunteer emergency medical services income tax credit shall be in an amount equal to five hundred dollars ($500).

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility from the bureau on forms and in the manner prescribed by the bureau. The application shall include proof that the taxpayer was an active emergency medical services volunteer for the entire taxable year for which the credit is being claimed and volunteered in New Mexico with an emergency medical service agency or ambulance certified by the bureau at least fifty-two times in the taxable year.

D. If the bureau determines that a taxpayer meets the requirements to claim the tax credit, the bureau shall issue to the taxpayer a dated certificate of eligibility providing the amount of the tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable year in which the credit may be claimed. The aggregate amount of tax credits that may be certified for any calendar year is two million dollars ($2,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received, and applications received after the limitation has been met in a calendar year shall not be approved. The bureau shall provide the department with the certificates of eligibility issued pursuant to this subsection in an electronic format at regularly agreed-upon intervals.

E. A taxpayer allowed to claim the tax credit shall claim the tax credit in a manner prescribed by the department. A taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim the tax credit for the same taxable year the taxpayer has claimed the volunteer firefighter income tax credit.

F. That portion of the tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year in which the tax credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

G. The tax credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the tax credit.

H. As used in this section:

(1) "bureau" means the emergency medical systems bureau of the public health division of the department of health;

(2) "eligible emergency medical services volunteer" means a person who is licensed by the bureau and who functions within the emergency medical services system to provide initial emergency medical services as an unpaid volunteer with an emergency medical service agency or ambulance certified by the bureau;

(3) "emergency medical services" means the services rendered in response to an individual's need for immediate medical care to prevent loss of life or aggravation of physical or psychological illness or injury;

(4) "emergency medical services system" means a coordinated system of health care delivery that responds to the needs of the sick and injured and includes emergency medical services and emergency medical dispatch; and

(5) "to volunteer" includes responding to requests for emergency medical service or providing in a day at least one hour of on-duty volunteer station time."

SECTION 10. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] VOLUNTEER FIREFIGHTER INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2030, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual, is an eligible volunteer firefighter and volunteers in New Mexico with a fire department approved by the state fire marshal's office at least fifty-two times in a taxable year may claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's tax liability for that taxable year imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act. The tax credit provided in this section may be referred to as the "volunteer firefighter income tax credit".

B. The volunteer firefighter income tax credit shall be in an amount equal to five hundred dollars ($500).

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility from the state fire marshal's office on forms and in the manner prescribed by that office. The application shall include proof that the taxpayer was an active volunteer for the entire taxable year for which the credit is being claimed and volunteered in New Mexico with a fire department approved by the state fire marshal's office at least fifty-two times in the taxable year.

D. If the state fire marshal's office determines that a taxpayer meets the requirements to claim the tax credit, the office shall issue to the taxpayer a dated certificate of eligibility providing the amount of the tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable year in which the credit may be claimed. The aggregate amount of tax credits that may be certified for any calendar year is two million dollars ($2,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received, and applications received after the limitation has been met shall not be approved. The state fire marshal's office shall provide the department with the certificates of eligibility issued pursuant to this subsection in an electronic format at regularly agreed-upon intervals.

E. A taxpayer allowed to claim the tax credit shall claim the tax credit in a manner prescribed by the department. A taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim the tax credit for the same taxable year the taxpayer has claimed the volunteer emergency medical services income tax credit.

F. That portion of the tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year in which the tax credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

G. The tax credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the tax credit.

H. As used in this section:

(1) "eligible volunteer firefighter" means a firefighter who is listed as an active member on the rolls of a fire department certified by the state fire marshal's office and who provides firefighter services as an unpaid volunteer; and

(2) "to volunteer" includes responding to requests for a fire department service and providing in a day at least one hour of on-duty station time."".

5. On page 18, between lines 10 and 11, insert:

"SECTION 11. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] VOLUNTEER SEARCH AND RESCUE INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2030, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual and volunteers in New Mexico at least six times or for at least sixty hours in a taxable year may claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's tax liability for that taxable year imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act. The tax credit provided in this section may be referred to as the "volunteer search and rescue income tax credit".

B. The volunteer search and rescue income tax credit shall be in an amount equal to:

(1) two hundred fifty dollars ($250) if the taxpayer volunteers between six and eleven times or volunteers for a total of between sixty and one hundred twenty hours; or

(2) five hundred dollars ($500) if the taxpayer volunteers twelve times or more or volunteers for a total of at least one hundred twenty hours.

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility from the resource officer on forms and in the manner prescribed by the resource officer. If the resource officer determines that a taxpayer meets the requirements to claim the tax credit, the resource officer shall issue to the taxpayer a dated certificate of eligibility providing the amount of the tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable year in which the credit may be claimed. The aggregate amount of tax credits that may be certified for any calendar year shall not exceed one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received, and applications received after the limitation has been met shall not be approved. The resource officer shall provide the department with the certificates of eligibility issued pursuant to this subsection in an electronic format at regularly agreed-upon intervals.

D. A taxpayer allowed to claim the tax credit shall claim the tax credit in a manner prescribed by the department.

E. That portion of the tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year in which the tax credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

F. Married individuals filing separate returns for a taxable year for which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the volunteer search and rescue income tax credit that would have been claimed on a joint return.

G. The credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the credit.

H. As used in this section:

(1) "mission" means each separate group effort of search and rescue that is approved and issued a mission number by the New Mexico state police division of the department of public safety;

(2) "resource officer" means the state search and rescue resource officer in the department of public safety;

(3) "search and rescue" means the employment, coordination and utilization of available resources and personnel in searching for, rendering aid to and preserving the lives of people lost, stranded, entrapped, injured or in distress and removing these people from the site of a disaster, emergency or hazard to a place of safety; and

(4) "volunteer" means participating in a search and rescue mission as a nonsalaried volunteer."".

6. On page 18, between lines 10 and 11, insert:

"SECTION 12. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] LOCAL JOURNALIST EMPLOYMENT INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2030, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual and is an owner of a local news organization that employs a journalist may claim a credit against the taxpayer's tax liability imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act in an amount provided in Subsection B of this section. The tax credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "local journalist employment income tax credit".

B. The amount of tax credit shall be in an amount equal to fifteen percent of compensation paid to each journalist employed by a local news organization.

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility for the tax credit from the department on forms and in the manner prescribed by the department within one year following the end of the calendar year in which the compensation is paid. A taxpayer shall not be eligible to receive a tax credit for more than seventy-five journalists whom the taxpayer employs as a local news organization and, except as provided in Subsections G and H of this section, a taxpayer shall not claim a tax credit for the same journalist more than once per taxable year.

D. The total annual aggregate amount of local journalist employment income tax credits and local journalist employment corporate income tax credits that may be certified in a calendar year shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received, and applications received after the limitation has been met shall not be approved.

E. If the department determines that the taxpayer meets the requirements of this section, the department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility to the taxpayer providing the amount of tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable years in which the credit may be claimed.

F. That portion of tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's income tax liability in the taxable year in which the credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

G. Married individuals filing separate returns for a taxable year for which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the tax credit that would have been claimed on a joint return.

H. A taxpayer may be allocated the right to claim the tax credit in proportion to the taxpayer's ownership interest if the taxpayer owns an interest in a business entity that is taxed for federal income tax purposes as a partnership or limited liability company and the business entity has met all requirements to be eligible for the credit. The total credit claimed by all members of the partnership or limited liability company shall not exceed the allowable credit pursuant to this section.

I. A taxpayer allowed to claim a tax credit pursuant to this section shall claim the tax credit in a manner required by the department.

J. The tax credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84

NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the tax credit.

K. As used in this section:

(1) "compensation" means not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in compensation paid by a local news organization to a journalist through the organization's payroll system, including that compensation that the journalist elects to defer or redirect or the journalist's contribution to a 401(k) or cafeteria plan program. "Compensation" does not mean benefits or the organization's share of payroll taxes, social security or medicare contributions, federal or state unemployment insurance contributions or workers' compensation;

(2) "journalist" means a person who:

(a) is paid by a local news organization to regularly gather, prepare, collect, photograph, record, direct the recording of, produce, write, edit, report or publish news or information that concerns state or local events or other matters of public interest for dissemination to the state or a local community through reporting activities, including conducting interviews, observing current events or analyzing documents;

"SECTION 16. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] CREDIT--FOSTER PARENT AND GUARDIAN INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2030, a taxpayer who is a resident, who is not a dependent of another individual and who is a foster parent or a guardian of a child may claim a credit against the taxpayer's tax liability imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act. The credit authorized pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "foster parent and guardian income tax credit".

B. The amount of the tax credit shall be in an amount equal to two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each month the taxpayer is a foster parent or guardian of a child in the taxable year in which the tax credit is claimed; provided that the taxpayer shall be a foster parent or guardian for more than fifty percent of that month; and provided further that the maximum amount of credit that may be claimed by a taxpayer in a taxable year is three thousand dollars ($3,000).

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility for the tax credit from the children, youth and families department on forms and in the manner prescribed by that department. Except as provided in Subsection E of this section, only one tax credit shall be certified per taxpayer per taxable year. If the children, youth and families department determines that the taxpayer meets the requirements of this section, that department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility to the taxpayer providing the amount of tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable years in which the credit may be claimed. The children, youth and families department shall provide the department with the certificates of eligibility issued pursuant to this subsection in an electronic format at regularly agreed upon intervals.

D. That portion of the tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's income tax liability in the taxable year in which the credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

E. Married individuals filing separate returns for a taxable year for which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the tax credit that would have been claimed on a joint return.

F. A taxpayer allowed to claim a tax credit pursuant to this section shall claim the tax credit in a manner required by the department. The credit shall be claimed within one taxable year of the end of the year in which the children, youth and families department certifies the credit.

G. The credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the credit.

H. As used in this section:

(1) "child" means an unemancipated individual who has not reached eighteen years of age;

(2) "foster parent" means a person licensed or certified by the children, youth and families department or a child placement agency to provide care for children in the custody of the department or agency; and

(3) "guardian" means a person appointed as a guardian by a court or an Indian tribal authority pursuant to the Kinship Guardianship Act, but does not include a person appointed as a guardian ad litem."".

"SECTION 17. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] QUANTUM FACILITY INFRASTRUCTURE INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026 and ending prior to January 1, 2031, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual and who makes at least three million dollars ($3,000,000) in qualified expenditures for infrastructure for a quantum facility located in New Mexico may claim a credit against the taxpayer's tax liability imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act in the amount provided in Subsection B of this section. The credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "quantum facility infrastructure income tax credit".

B. Subject to the total aggregate amount allowed pursuant to Subsection D of this section, the amount of credit shall be in an amount equal to fifteen percent of the amount of the qualified expenditures made by the taxpayer for infrastructure for a quantum facility, not to exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000) per quantum facility.

C. Prior to incurring a qualified expenditure, a taxpayer shall apply for preliminary certification of eligibility for the credit from the economic development department on forms and in the manner prescribed by that department. Such preliminary certification shall be limited to confirming that the qualified expenditures proposed to be made by the taxpayer will in whole or in part be used to provide infrastructure for a quantum facility and providing an estimate of the amount of credit for which the taxpayer may be eligible. Only one certificate of eligibility shall be issued for a quantum facility, regardless of ownership of the facility.

D. Within twelve months of completion of construction of a quantum facility, the taxpayer shall seek final certification from the economic development department. The total annual aggregate amount of quantum facility infrastructure income tax credits and quantum facility infrastructure corporate income tax credits that may be certified in any calendar year shall not exceed fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received, and applications received after the limitation has been met shall not be approved. An application for final certification shall include information required by the economic development department to determine eligibility for the credit, including information substantiating qualified expenditures. If that department determines that the taxpayer meets the requirements of this section, that department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility to the taxpayer providing the amount of credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable years in which the credit may be claimed. The economic development department shall provide the department with the certificates of eligibility issued pursuant to this subsection in secure electronic format at regularly agreed-upon intervals.

E. A taxpayer allowed to claim the credit shall claim the credit in a manner required by the department. The credit shall be claimed within one year of receiving final certification from the economic development department. The taxpayer shall claim the amount certified and approved against the taxpayer's income tax liability. Any amount of credit that exceeds the taxpayer's income tax liability shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

F. Married individuals filing separate returns for a taxable year for which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the credit that would have been claimed on a joint return.

G. A taxpayer may be allocated the right to claim the credit in a proportion to the taxpayer's ownership interest if the taxpayer owns an interest in a business entity that is taxed for federal income tax purposes as a partnership or limited liability company and that business entity has met all of the requirements to be eligible for the credit. The total credit claimed by all members of the partnership or limited liability company shall not exceed the allowable credit pursuant to this section.

H. The tax credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the tax credit.

I. As used in this section:

(1) "qualified expenditure" means an expenditure made by a taxpayer for land and rent paid or incurred for land, improvements, buildings or infrastructure required for a quantum facility, but not including any expenditure for property that is owned by a municipality or county in connection with an industrial revenue bond project, property for which the taxpayer has received any credit pursuant to the Investment Credit Act or property that was owned by the taxpayer or an affiliate before January 1, 2025. If a "qualified expenditure" is an allocation of an expenditure, the cost accounting methodology used for the allocation of the expenditure shall be the same cost accounting methodology used by the taxpayer in its other business activities;

(2) "quantum facility" means a facility in New Mexico at which research and development in quantum technology is conducted, other than a facility operated by a taxpayer for the United States or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; and

(3) "quantum technology" means technology that relies on quantum superposition or quantum entanglement or innovations that enable those technologies."

SECTION 18. A new section of the Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] QUANTUM FACILITY INFRASTRUCTURE CORPORATE INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026 and ending prior to January 1, 2031, a taxpayer that makes at least three million dollars ($3,000,000) in qualified expenditures for infrastructure for a quantum facility located in New Mexico may claim a credit against the taxpayer's tax liability imposed pursuant to the Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Act in the amount provided in Subsection B of this section. The credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "quantum facility infrastructure corporate income tax credit".

B. Subject to the total aggregate amount allowed pursuant to Subsection D of this section, the amount of credit shall be in an amount equal to fifteen percent of the amount of the qualified expenditures made by the taxpayer for infrastructure for a quantum facility, not to exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000) per quantum facility.

C. Prior to incurring a qualified expenditure, a taxpayer shall apply for preliminary certification of eligibility for the credit from the economic development department on forms and in the manner prescribed by that department. Such preliminary certification shall be limited to confirming that the qualified expenditures proposed to be made by the taxpayer will in whole or in part be used to provide infrastructure for a quantum facility and providing an estimate of the amount of credit for which the taxpayer may be eligible. Only one certificate of eligibility shall be issued for a quantum facility, regardless of ownership of the facility.

D. Within twelve months of completion of construction of a quantum facility, the taxpayer shall seek final certification from the economic development department. The total annual aggregate amount of quantum facility infrastructure income tax credits and quantum facility infrastructure corporate income tax credits that may be certified in any calendar year shall not exceed fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received, and applications received after the limitation has been met shall not be approved. An application for final certification shall include information required by the economic development department to determine eligibility for the credit, including information substantiating qualified expenditures. If that department determines that the taxpayer meets the requirements of this section, that department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility to the taxpayer providing the amount of credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable years in which the credit may be claimed. The economic development department shall provide the department with the certificates of eligibility issued pursuant to this subsection in secure electronic format at regularly agreed-upon intervals.

E. A taxpayer allowed to claim the credit shall claim the credit in a manner required by the department. The credit shall be claimed within one year of receiving final certification from the economic development department. The taxpayer shall claim the amount certified and approved against the taxpayer's income tax liability. Any amount of credit that exceeds the taxpayer's income tax liability shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

F. The tax credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the annual aggregate cost of the tax credit.

G. As used in this section:

(1) "qualified expenditure" means an expenditure made by a taxpayer for land and rent paid or incurred for land, improvements, buildings or infrastructure required for a quantum facility, but not including any expenditure for property that is owned by a municipality or county in connection with an industrial revenue bond project, property for which the taxpayer has received any credit pursuant to the Investment Credit Act or property that was owned by the taxpayer or an affiliate before January 1, 2025. If a "qualified expenditure" is an allocation of an expenditure, the cost accounting methodology used for the allocation of the expenditure shall be the same cost accounting methodology used by the taxpayer in its other business activities;

(2) "quantum facility" means a facility in New Mexico at which research and development in quantum technology is conducted, other than a facility operated by a taxpayer for the United States or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; and

(3) "quantum technology" means technology that relies on quantum superposition or quantum entanglement or innovations that enable those technologies."".

"SECTION 20. Section 7-1-6.38 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1994, Chapter 145, Section 1, as amended) is amended to read:

"7-1-6.38. DISTRIBUTION--GOVERNMENTAL GROSS RECEIPTS TAX.--

A. A distribution pursuant to Section 7-1-6.1 NMSA 1978 shall be made in amounts equal to the following percentages of the net receipts attributable to the governmental gross receipts tax, less the net receipts attributable to a hospital licensed by the [~~department of~~] health care authority:

(1) seventy-five percent to the public project revolving fund administered by the New Mexico finance authority;

(2) twenty-four percent to the energy, minerals and natural resources department; provided that forty-one and two-thirds percent of the distribution is appropriated to the energy, minerals and natural resources department to implement the provisions of the New Mexico Youth Conservation Corps Act and fifty-eight and one-third percent of the distribution is appropriated to the energy, minerals and natural resources department for state park and recreation area capital improvements, including the costs of planning, engineering, design, construction, renovation, repair, equipment and furnishings; and

(3) one percent to the cultural affairs department for capital improvements at state museums and monuments administered by the cultural affairs department.

B. The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of any bonds or notes issued by the New Mexico finance authority or by the energy, minerals and natural resources department and payable from the net receipts attributable to the governmental gross receipts tax distributed to the New Mexico finance authority or the energy, minerals and natural resources department pursuant to this section that the state will not limit, reduce or alter the distribution of the net receipts attributable to the governmental gross receipts tax to the New Mexico finance authority or the energy, minerals and natural resources department or limit, reduce or alter the rate of imposition of the governmental gross receipts tax until the bonds or notes together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged. The New Mexico finance authority and the energy, minerals and natural resources department are authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of the bonds or notes.

C. Prior to July 1, 2032, a distribution pursuant to Section 7-1-6.1 NMSA 1978 shall be made to the university school of medicine fund in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the net receipts attributable to the governmental gross receipts tax that are attributable to a hospital licensed by the health care authority."

SECTION 21. [NEW MATERIAL] DEPOSITS TO UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE FUND.--On each July 1 of 2025 through 2032, the university of New Mexico school of medicine shall deposit four million dollars ($4,000,000) in the university school of medicine fund; provided that the revenue used to make the deposit shall not be attributable to appropriations from state funds.

SECTION 22. [NEW MATERIAL] UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE FUND.--The "university school of medicine fund" is created as a nonreverting fund in the state treasury. The fund consists of distributions, appropriations, gifts, grants, donations and income from investment of the fund. The health care authority shall administer the fund. Money in the fund is subject to appropriation by the legislature to provide funding for construction and reconstruction of the university of New Mexico school of medicine. Expenditures from the fund shall be by warrant of the secretary of finance and administration pursuant to vouchers signed by the secretary of health care authority or the secretary's authorized representative."

"7-17-5. IMPOSITION AND RATE OF LIQUOR EXCISE TAX.--

A. There is imposed on a wholesaler who sells alcoholic beverages on which the tax imposed by this section has not been paid an excise tax, to be referred to as the "liquor excise tax", at the following rates on alcoholic beverages sold:

(1) on spirituous liquors, except as provided in Paragraph (9) of this subsection, [~~one dollar sixty cents ($1.60)~~] one dollar ninety-two cents ($1.92) per liter;

(2) on beer, except as provided in Paragraph (5) of this subsection, [~~forty-one cents ($.41)~~] forty-nine cents ($.49) per gallon;

(3) on wine, except as provided in Paragraphs (4) and (6) of this subsection, [~~forty-five cents ($.45)~~] fifty-four cents ($.54) per liter;

(4) on fortified wine, [~~one dollar fifty cents ($1.50)~~] one dollar eighty cents ($1.80) per liter;

(5) on beer manufactured or produced by a microbrewer and sold in this state, provided that proof is furnished to the department that the beer was manufactured or produced by a microbrewer, eight cents ($.08) per gallon on the first thirty thousand barrels sold, twenty-eight cents ($.28) per gallon for all barrels sold over thirty thousand barrels but less than sixty thousand barrels and forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon for sixty thousand or more barrels sold;

(6) on wine manufactured or produced by a small winegrower and sold in this state, provided that proof is furnished to the department that the wine was manufactured or produced by a small winegrower:

(a) ten cents ($.10) per liter on the first eighty thousand liters sold;

(b) twenty cents ($.20) per liter on each liter sold over eighty thousand liters but not over nine hundred fifty thousand liters; and

(c) thirty cents ($.30) per liter on each liter

sold over nine hundred fifty thousand liters but not over one million five hundred thousand liters;

(7) on cider, except as provided in Paragraph (8) of this subsection, [~~forty-one cents ($.41)~~] forty-nine cents ($.49) per gallon;

(8) on cider manufactured or produced by a small winegrower and sold in this state, provided that proof is furnished to the department that the cider was manufactured or produced by a small winegrower, eight cents ($.08) per gallon on the first thirty thousand barrels sold, twenty-eight cents ($.28) per gallon for all barrels sold over thirty thousand barrels but less than sixty thousand barrels and forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon for sixty thousand or more barrels sold; and

(9) on spirituous liquors manufactured or produced by a craft distiller licensed pursuant to Section 60-6A-6.1 NMSA 1978, provided that proof is provided to the department that the spirituous liquors were manufactured or produced by a craft distiller, for products up to ten percent alcohol by volume, eight cents ($.08) per liter for the first two hundred fifty thousand liters sold and twenty-eight cents ($.28) per liter for the next two hundred fifty thousand liters sold and for products over ten percent alcohol by volume, thirty-two cents ($.32) per liter on the first one hundred seventy-five thousand liters sold and sixty-five cents ($.65) per liter on the next two hundred thousand liters sold.

B. The volume of wine transferred from one winegrower to another winegrower for processing, bottling or storage and subsequent return to the transferor shall be excluded pursuant to Section 7-17-6 NMSA 1978 from the taxable volume of wine of the transferee. Wine transferred from an initial winegrower to a second winegrower remains a tax liability of the transferor, provided that if the wine is transferred to the transferee for the transferee's use or for resale, the transferee then assumes the liability for the tax due pursuant to this section.

C. A transfer of wine from a winegrower to a wholesaler for distribution of the wine transfers the liability for payment of the liquor excise tax to the wholesaler upon the sale of the wine by the wholesaler."".
