2 C. Arbitration pursuant to this section shall be 3 heard by one or more [~~arbitrator~~] arbitrators. The court shall 4 appoint an arbitrator agreed to by the parties if the 5 arbitrator consents to the appointment.

6 D. If the parties have not agreed to an arbitrator,

9 state bar of New Mexico;

10 (2) has practiced as an attorney for not less 11 than five years immediately preceding the appointment and 12 actively practiced in the area of domestic relations during 13 three of those five years. Any period of time during which a

6 G. An arbitrator appointed pursuant to this
7 section:

8 (1) shall hear and make an award on each issue
9 submitted for arbitration pursuant to the arbitration agreement

17 appointment of experts; and

18 (c) to allocate arbitration fees and

21 provide information, subject to provisions of the arbitration
22 agreement.

23 H. An arbitrator, attorney or party in an 24 arbitration proceeding ~~[pursuant to this section]~~ shall 25 disclose in writing any circumstances that may affect an

.229191.1

1 arbitrator's impartiality, including bias, financial interests,
2 personal interests or family relationships. Upon disclosure of 3 such a circumstance, a party may request disqualification of 4 the arbitrator. If the arbitrator does not withdraw within 5 seven days after a request for disqualification, the party may 6 file a motion for disqualification with the court.

7 I. If the court finds that the arbitrator is 8 disqualified, the court may appoint another arbitrator, subject
9 to the provisions of the arbitration agreement.

10 J. As soon as practicable after the appointment of 11 the arbitrator, the parties and attorneys shall confer with the 12 arbitrator to consider all of the following:

14 (2) date, time and place of the hearing;
15 (3) witnesses, including experts, who may 16 testify;
17 (4) appointment of experts and a schedule for 18 exchange of expert reports or summary of expert testimony; and 19 (5) subject to the provisions of Subsection K

24 information is waived.

25 K. The arbitrator shall order reasonable access to

1 information for each party that is material to the arbitration
2 issues prior to the hearing, including the following:

3 (1) a current complete sworn financial
4 disclosure statement, when financial matters are at issue;

5 (2) if a court has issued an order concerning
6 an issue subject to arbitration, a copy of the order;

8 arbitration issues defined by the arbitrator;

9 (4) proposed award by each party for each
10 issue subject to arbitration; and

11 (5) expert opinions of experts to be used by

13 L. Except as otherwise provided by this section,
14 court rule or the arbitration agreement, a record shall not 15 [~~ordinarily~~] be made of an arbitration hearing [~~pursuant to~~ 16 ~~this section~~] unless either party requests it. If a record is 17 not required, an arbitrator may make a record to be used only 18 by the arbitrator to aid in reaching the decision.

19 M. Unless waived by the parties, a record shall be 20 made of that portion of the hearing that concerns child
21 custody, visitation or time-sharing.

22 N. The arbitration agreement may set forth any

3 O. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties and

6 the end of the hearing and after receipt of proposed findings
7 of fact and conclusions of law if requested by the arbitrator.

8 P. If the parties reach an agreement regarding 9 child custody, time-sharing or visitation, the agreement shall 10 be placed on the record by the parties under oath and shall be 11 included in the arbitrator's written award.

12 Q. The arbitrator retains jurisdiction to correct
13 errors or omissions in an award upon motion by a party to the 14 arbitrator within twenty days after the award is issued or upon 15 the arbitrator's own motion. Another party to the arbitration 16 may respond to the motion within seven days after the motion is 17 made. The arbitrator shall make a decision on the motion
18 within seven days after the expiration of the response time
19 period.

20 R. The court shall enforce an arbitrator's award or 21 other order ~~[issued pursuant to this section]~~ in the same
22 manner as an order issued by the court. A party may make a

4 the arbitrator or court grants an extension.

5 T. If a party applies to the court for vacation of 6 an arbitrator's award [~~in binding arbitration issued pursuant~~ 7 ~~to this section~~] that concerns child custody, time-sharing or 8 visitation, the court shall review the award [~~based~~] using only 9 [~~upon~~] the record of the arbitration hearing and factual
10 matters that have arisen since the arbitration hearing that are 11 relevant to the claim. The court may vacate an award of 12 custody, time-sharing or visitation made in binding arbitration
13 if the court finds that circumstances have changed since 14 issuance of the award that are adverse to the best interests of 15 the child, upon a finding that the award will cause harm or be 16 detrimental to a child or pursuant to Subsections U and V of 17 this section. An arbitration agreement may provide a broader 18 scope of review of custody, time-sharing or visitation issues
19 by the court, and such review will apply if broader than this 20 section.

21 U. If a party applies to the court for vacation or 22 modification of an arbitrator's award [~~issued pursuant to this~~ 23 ~~section~~], the court shall review the award only as provided in

8 arbitrator's powers; or

9 (4) the arbitrator refused to postpone the 10 hearing on a showing of sufficient cause or refused to hear

12 W. An application to vacate an award on grounds
13 stated in Subsections [~~U~~] T and V of this section shall be 14 decided by the court. If an award is vacated on grounds stated 15 in Paragraph (3) or (4) of Subsection V of this section, the 16 court may order a rehearing before the arbitrator who made the 17 award when both parties consent to the rehearing before the 18 arbitrator who made the award.

19 X. An appeal from an arbitration award [~~pursuant to~~
