7 officers of the militia who receive no salary.

8 B. The senate shall be composed of no more than 9 forty-two members elected from single-member districts.

10 C. The house of representatives shall be composed 11 of no more than seventy members elected from single-member

13 ~~[D. Once following publication of the official~~
14 ~~report of each federal decennial census hereafter conducted,~~
15 ~~the legislature may by statute reapportion its membership.]"~~

16 SECTION 2. It is proposed to amend Article 20 of the 17 constitution of New Mexico by adding a new section to read:

18 "A. By September 1 of the year of the federal 19 decennial census, an independent redistricting commission shall 20 be established to develop and adopt plans for the redistricting
21 of state legislative districts and the districts of other state 22 offices requiring redistricting. The commission shall file its 23 adopted plans with the secretary of state within six months of

1 districts for use in the succeeding elections for each
2 respective office.

3 B. The redistricting commission shall consist of 4 nine members who are registered qualified electors of New 5 Mexico, three of whom are members of the largest political 6 party, three of whom are members of the second largest 7 political party and three of whom are not members of either of 8 the two largest political parties and that, as closely as 9 possible, reflects the demographic makeup and geographic 10 distribution of the population of the state. From applications
11 received, the secretary of state shall administer the process
12 to randomly select two-thirds of the members of the commission 13 using a statistically accepted weighting methodology as 14 provided by law. The final one-third shall be selected from 15 among the remaining applicant pool by majority vote of the 16 commission members. The legislature shall provide by law a 17 procedure for meetings of the redistricting commission.

18 C. Districts shall be drawn using traditional 19 redistricting principles and shall not result in minority vote
20 dilution when a minority group is sufficiently large and 21 geographically compact to constitute a majority in a single-22 member district and is politically cohesive and the non-23 minority group votes sufficiently as a block to usually enable 24 it to defeat the minority group's preferred candidate. The 25 commission shall not consider the voting address of incumbents.

1 The commission shall not use party membership or voting history
2 to develop redistricting plans but may use such information to 3 assess compliance with federal law and this section.

4 D. The redistricting commission has procurement and 5 contracting authority and may employ or contract with staff, 6 consultants and legal counsel as necessary to carry out its 7 duties. The redistricting commission has standing in legal 8 actions challenging the redistricting plans or process or the 9 adequacy of resources provided for the operation of the 10 redistricting commission. The redistricting commission has 11 sole authority to determine whether the attorney general or the 13 defense of a redistricting plan."

14 SECTION 3. The amendment proposed by this resolution 15 shall be submitted to the people for their approval or 16 rejection at the next general election or at any special
