

Federal Percent of Total School District Funding

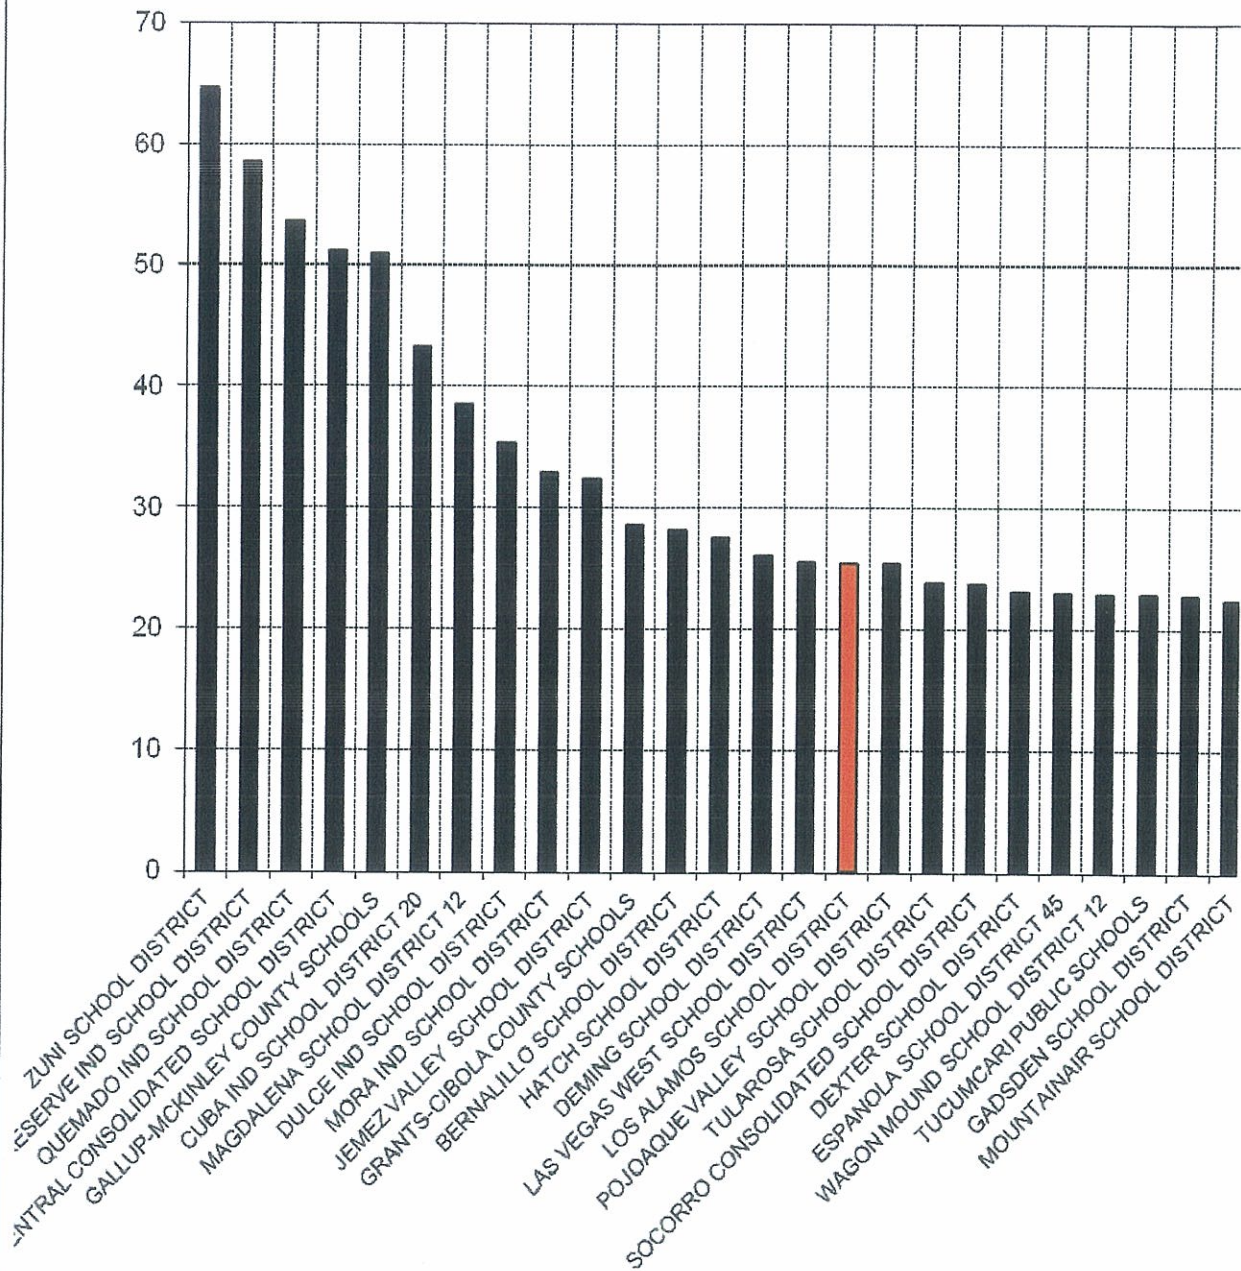

Figure 1. This chart shows the percentage of total school district funds that come from the federal government. Los Alamos (shown in red) ranks 16th in the state in the percentage of school funds coming from the federal government. We are tied with the Pojoaque school district at 25.5 % of our funds coming from the feds.