Accomplishments

- Met with all grantees at mid-year, for those who did not spend at least 50% of their award.
 - ✓ Where they were with funding
 - ✓ Needing assistance with ideas for reallocation
- Held Quarterly Meetings with all Programs/Initiatives to include (will continue this for FY23):
 - At least two presentations from grant recipients to provide an overview of their program/ initiatives
 - ✓ What is working
 - ✓ Any barriers they were hitting
 - ✓ Student successes
 - ✓ Goals/projected outcomes
 - ✓ Opened it up for questions
- Working with REC-IX, and SED on a Mentorship project for level 1 teachers Region 9 Statewide \(2022\) \(vimeo.com\)
- Worked on and will continue improving partnerships with tribes, legislators, districts, charters, alliances, advisories, coalitions, etc. by creating sustainable relationship-building practices.

Sustained Learning Opportunities through IED:

The University of New Mexico's Institute for American Indian Education and Native American Studies Department presented on five sustained learning sessions in partnership with IED.

- These sessions will continue at the request of districts:
 1. Sustained Learning: Cultural Competency/Cultural Sensitivity
 2. Sustained Learning: Effective Communication: Conflict Resolution
 3. Sustained Learning: Anti-racism
 4. Sustained Learning: History of Indigenous Peoples
 5. Sustained Learning: Linguistic landscape of our students?

Trainings that will be available to School Districts and Charter Schools through IED

1. Indian Education Act and Tribal Sovereignty
2. Tribal Consultation
3. Refresher training on how to complete a Student Needs Assessment, and Systemic Framework

Our work ahead

- Working with Districts and Charter Schools in collaboration with the Language and Culture Division to ensure the bilingual seal is following statute, Tribal Sovereignty along with Native Language Classes
- Work with Pueblos, Tribes and Nations to complete the following MOU/MOA:
 - Data Sharing Agreement between Tribal Leaders and Districts
 - MOU-Agreement that recognizes Tribal Sovereignty in establishing standards and criteria in determining competency for language and culture (520-NALC) along with working with the Licensure Bureau
- Working with Districts and Tribal Leaders to create their own process for meaningful Tribal Consultation
- Working with BIE to set up an MOU to share data

Recommendations to the committee

- Recurring, multi-year funding for IEA (build capacity, offer programs consistently and contracts for employees, and builds sustainability)
- Recommend legislation supporting data sharing agreements between tribes and school districts
 - An example can be found from 2021 in the state of Washington. School Districts and Tribes in consultation to Develop a model policy and procedures for a Data Sharing Agreement with Local Tribes and MOA

THANK YOU AND HAVE A GREAT DAY!
