

QUIZ YOURSELF ON DISABILITIES

True or False

1. Most blind people see only darkness.
2. The courteous thing to do when walking with a person using a wheelchair is to get behind them and push.
3. Disabled people can have full, rewarding lives as married people and parents.
4. If you see a person with a wheelchair stand up, it means they're faking.
5. Some deaf-blind people use a communications technique called palm printing.
6. Persons with disabilities prefer to be referred to as "differently abled."
7. A Developmentally disabled person will need supervision and care all his or her life.
8. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act, an employer must provide accommodation for a qualified job applicant.
9. If a person is mentally disabled, he or she cannot be trusted with responsible positions.
10. American Sign Language is really a representation of English using hand gestures.
11. It is perfectly appropriate to address questions to a disabled person through his/her non-disabled companion.

12. Working with disabled persons requires more than usual patience and understanding.

13. The correct way to guide a blind person is by letting him or her take your arm.

14. A “one-size-fits-all” approach to workplace accommodations for people with the same disability is sufficient.

15. You should always address the interpreter when working with people who are deaf or hard of hearing.