

Economic & Rural Development & Policy Committee Presentation October 12, 2023

> Sarita Nair Cabinet Secretary Sarita.Nair@dws.nm.gov

August 2023 Unemployment and Jobs

NM's Labor Force Participation Rate Since January 2020

Early September 2021: End of additional UI benefits

End of February 2023: End of Medicaid Continuous Coverage

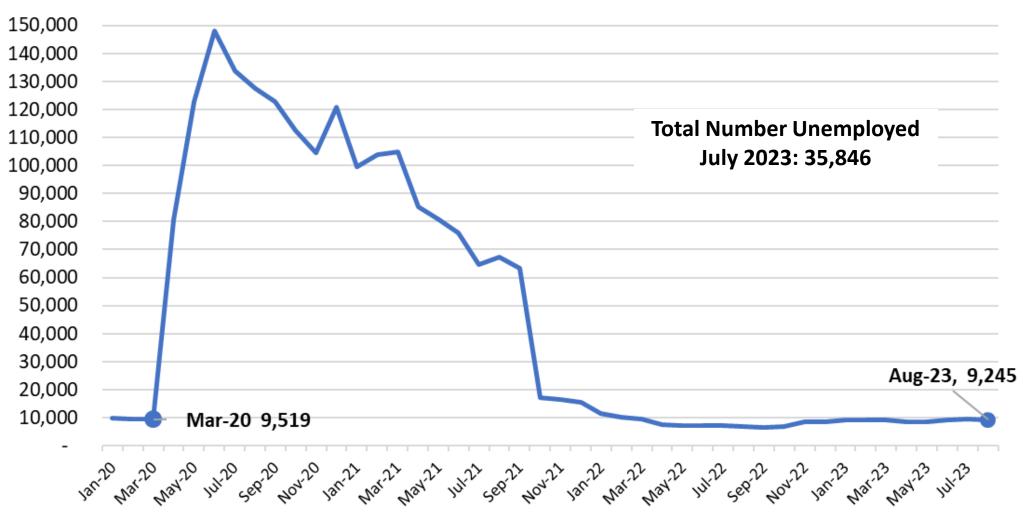

End of March 2023: End of SNAP Emergency Allotments

LFPR is seasonally adjusted. August 2023 data are preliminary. Source: BLS

Unemployment Claims

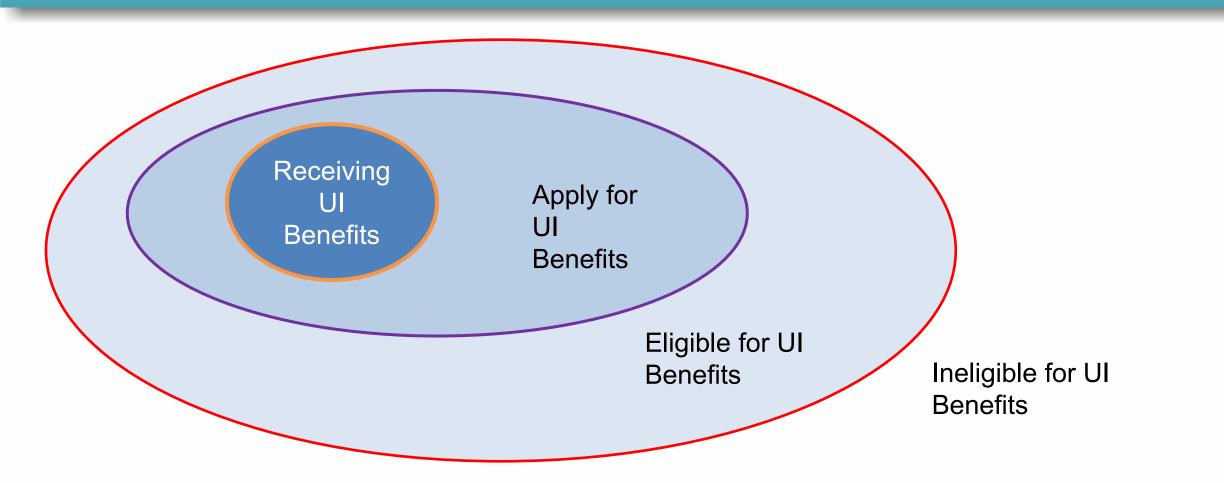

Claimants Receiving Unemployment Benefits

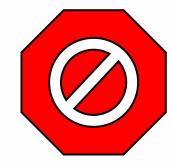

Total number unemployed includes population receiving unemployment insurance benefits. Total # unemployed are seasonally adjusted. Source: LAUS. Claimants receiving unemployment insurance benefits comes from the ETA 203 reports. May 2020 - February 2022 represent data from the MTX report and represents counts of claimants receiving Unemployment Benefits the week of the 19th of the month.

4

Barriers to Eligibility

- Immigration status
- Self-employment
- Inadequate wages

Ideas and Initiatives

- Study on benefits to currently excluded individuals (CO)
- Portable benefits for self-employed (AL, CA, CT, GA, MA, NJ, NY, WA, VT)

Barriers to Access

- Awareness
- Language
- Telecommunications
- Complexity
- Lock-outs

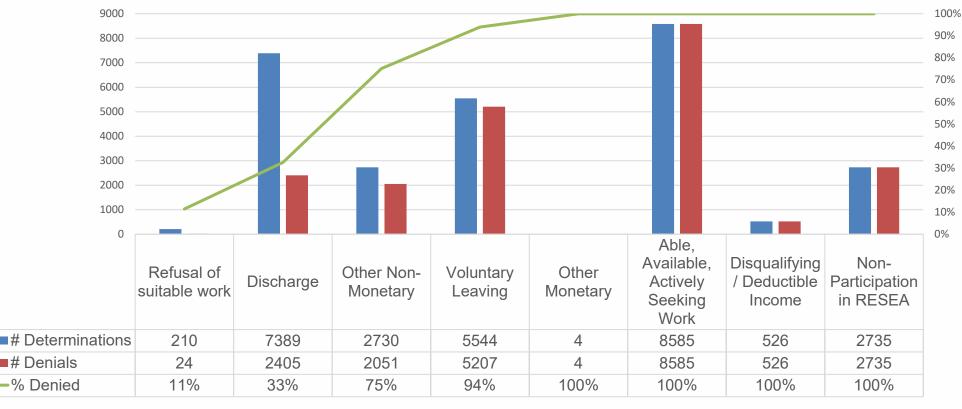

Ideas and Initiatives

- Equity Grant and Navigator Program
- Hiring more multilingual speakers for UI call center; expanded language access policy
- In-person presence at Workforce
 Connection Centers
- Anti-fraud initiatives

Reasons for Denials 2022 - September 2023

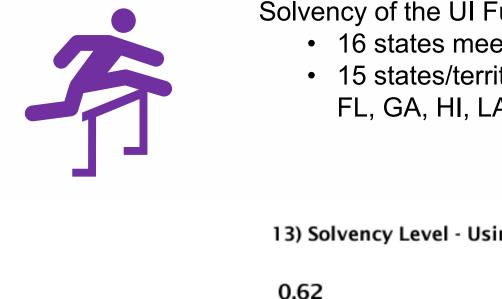

Determinations # Denials

Denials ——% Denied

DWS Fiscal Challenges

Solvency of the UI Fund

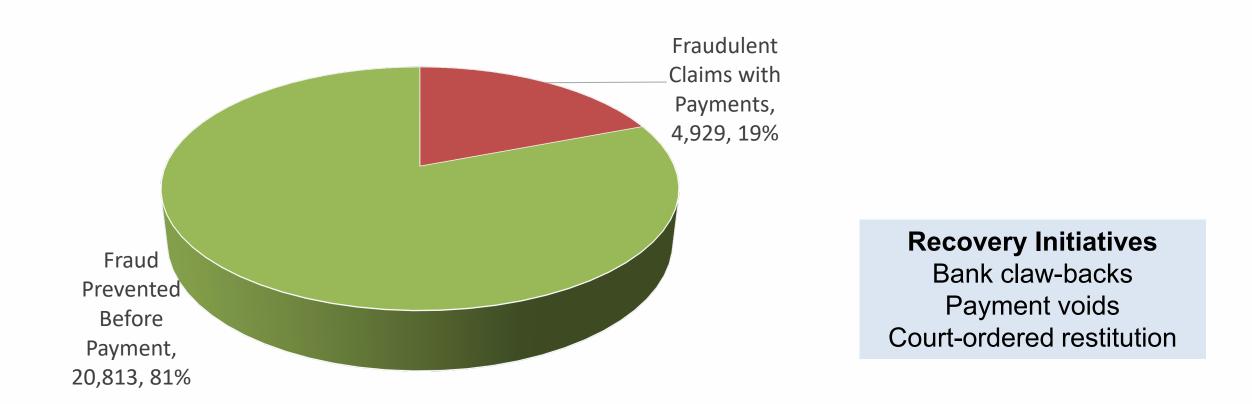

- 16 states meet recommended solvency levels
- 15 states/territories that have not bounced back since 2019 (AL, DC, FL, GA, HI, LA, MI, NC, NH, NM, NV, OK, PR, VA, VT)

13) Solvency Level - Using Average High Cost Multiple¹

Unemployment Insurance Fraud Issues

Unemployment Insurance Fraud Issues

Fraud Initiatives

$1.2 million USDOL grant for fraud detection & prevention Enhanced ID verification and authentication Pattern recognition RESEA

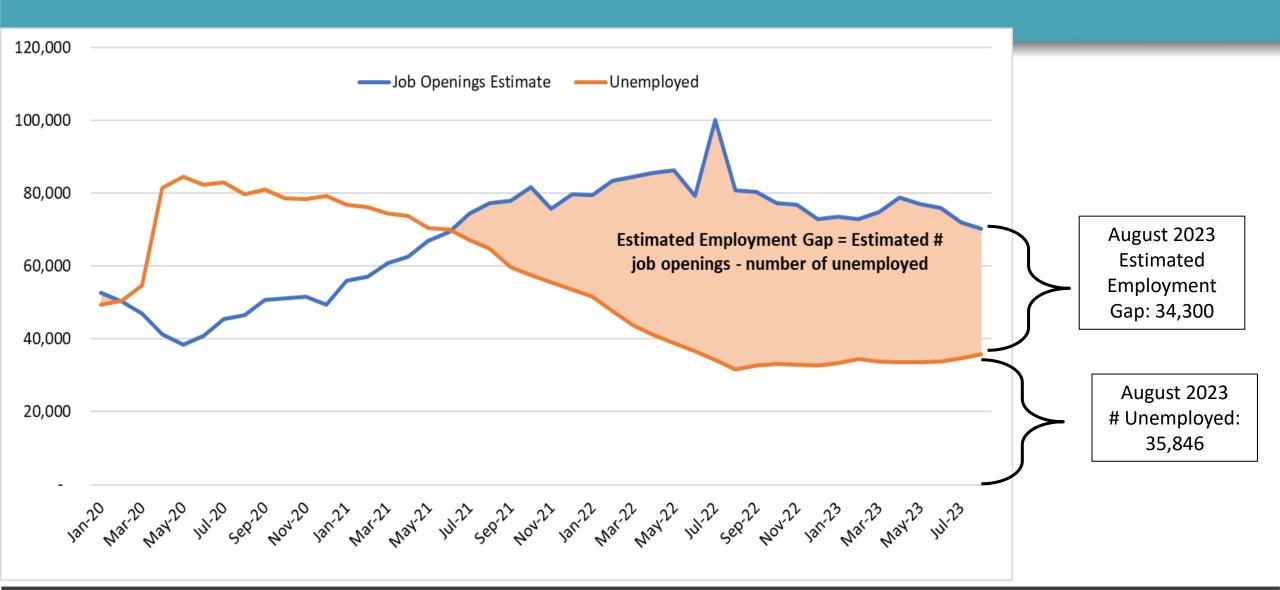

Unemployment Insurance Fraud Issues

The newest scam: Fictitious Employers

Fictitious Employer Activity April 2023 – Present
Fictitious Employer Detected	642
Claims Filed	1,436
Fraudulent Benefits Claimed	$19,585,712
Fraudulent Benefits Paid	$0

Estimated Employment Gap

Sources: Estimated employment gap uses U.S. BLS Job Opening & Labor Turnover (JOLTS) seasonally adjusted job openings data and advertised job openings from WCOS. Unemployed data are seasonally adjusted and comes from the LAUS program. August 2023 data are preliminary.

Recruitment – We Can Help!

- Applicant database search for qualified candidates
- Customized applicant recruitment
 - Paid and unpaid marketing (Social Media, Radio, TV)
 - $_{\odot}$ Outreach to local and regional Educational Institutions
 - Outreach to Community Organizations
 - Direct Marketing through Local Workforce Office statewide network
- Arranging customized Rapid Hires
- Applicant pre-screening and interview scheduling assistance
- Skill assessments verifying abilities (Work Keys)
- Determine eligibility for training funds
- TANF work programs Career Link and Wage Subsidy

Retention Strategies for the Modern Workforce

Accomplishment

New Mexico Department of WORKEERCE SOLUTIONS Grow Your Own: Pre-Apprenticeship and Apprenticeship

Teach managers and supervisors how to work with a remote workforce

Strength-based employee performance evaluations

We can help design on-boarding strategies to establish these pieces from Day One

DWS Budgetary Requests

Audit reveals over $350,000 owed to employees from UNM Hospital project

by: Audrey Claire Davis Posted: Aug 29, 2023 / 03:03 PM MDT Updated: Aug 30, 2023 / 07:24 AM MDT

SHARE 👩 🎔 🛅 🖼

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (KRQE) – The New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions' Labor Relations Division was contacted to investigate a company that did not fully compensate its

- Continuing High School Career Counselors -$1.28M
- Continuing Be Pro Be Proud and Pre-Apprenticeship - $3.245M
- Labor Relations Division staffing $641,400
 - Public works case loads have gone from 70 to 92 per person
 - Wage and Hour saw a 73% increase in Q1 FY23 comp. to Q1 FY22
- IT Legally required wage & hour database -$100,000

DWS Fiscal Challenges and Improvements

- Reduced administrative overhead to below 25%
- $6 million in federal funding for UI improvements
- Applying for infrastructure workforce grants
- Federal funding stays flat while salaries increase
- TAA not reauthorized

