

Department of Military Affairs

1. Produce Soldiers and Airmen that are ready to successfully and safely accomplish the mission

- 100% end strength
 - Army Guard: 100% +
 - Air Guard: 97%

- World class training, equipment, facilities
 - Training
 - Partnering with Fort Carson & Fort Bliss
 - Equipment
 - Army Guard: Concern is Army Blackhawks
 - Air Guard: Seeking CV-22 Ospreys
 - Facilities
 - Alamogordo renovation
 - General Obligation Bonds
 - $4 M for Las Cruces Aviation Readiness Center
 - $2 M for sustainment, restoration and maintenance
 - Divestment of some armories – with a view to a win/win for local communities
 - Discussion on the Old Pecos Trail (Santa Fe) Armory
 - Museum, SF Performing Arts, Children's Museum, Center for Contemporary Arts
 - Encroachment

- Soldiers and Airmen of character

2. Anticipate and fight for relevant federal missions

- Continual transformation in a down-sizing environment
 - Army Guard: Seeking Short Range Air Defense mission
 - Air Guard: Seeking enhanced Special Operations mission and Fighter mission at HAFB

- Leverage NM's standing as a center of excellence for joint, interorganizational, multinational training, testing, evaluation and assessment

3. Items of Note

- 126th Military Police Company deployed – all doing well

- Albuquerque Police Department awarded National Employee Support of the Guard and Reserve Freedom Award

- 237 Airmen activated for the Dog Head Fire