HOUSE BILL 341

44TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2000

INTRODUCED BY

Sandra L. Townsend

AN ACT

RELATING TO HAZARDOUS MATERIALS; PROVIDING FOR AN ANNUAL DISTRIBUTION FROM THE FIRE PROTECTION FUND TO CREATE AND TRAIN REGIONAL HAZARDOUS MATERIALS TASK FORCES; MAKING AN APPROPRIATION; DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. A new section of the Fire Protection Fund
Law, Section 59A-53-6.1 NMSA 1978, is enacted to read:

"59A-53-6.1. [NEW MATERIAL] HAZARDOUS MATERIALS TASK FORCE FUND--CREATION--DISTRIBUTION--REVERSION.--

A. The "hazardous materials task force fund" is created. The fund shall consist of transfers made to the fund pursuant to Subsection B of this section. Money in the fund is appropriated for use by the state fire marshal pursuant to the provisions of this section.

B. On or before July 1 of each year, a transfer

1 shall be made from the fire protection fund to the hazardous
2 materials task force fund in an amount equal to one and one-
3 fourth percent of the balance in the fire protection fund as 4 of the preceding May 1.

5 C. The hazardous materials task force fund shall 6 be administered by the state fire marshal for distribution to 7 counties and incorporated municipalities for the purpose of 8 equipping and training local first responders to emergencies 9 involving the transportation of hazardous materials and for 10 the purpose of equipping and training regional hazardous 11 materials task forces capable of responding outside the 12 jurisdiction of municipalities. The following procedures
13 govern distributions from the fund:

14 (1) municipalities or counties interested in 15 receiving a distribution from the fund shall make application
16 to the marshal;

17 (2) distributions shall be made only after a 18 complete inspection by the marshal in order to ensure that 19 all equipment, training and staffing meet the requirements
20 established by the emergency management task force for a
21 technician level team;

22 (3) distributions shall be made to a
23 municipality or county only if the recipient agrees to 24 provide regional hazardous materials first response to areas
25 outside the recipient's boundaries;

(4) distributions shall be made to a municipality or county only after receiving input from the

1 emergency management task force; and

2 (5) no distribution to a single county or 3 municipality shall exceed thirty-five thousand dollars
4 ($35,000) in any fiscal year.

5 D. In addition to distributions made to 6 municipalities and counties pursuant to Subsection C of this 7 section, the state fire marshal may expend up to seventy-five 8 thousand dollars ($75,000) annually from the hazardous 9 materials task force fund for the training and equipping of 10 small community fire departments without hazardous materials
11 first response capabilities.

12 E. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance 13 remaining in the hazardous materials task force fund at the 14 end of a fiscal year shall revert to the fire protection 15 fund."

16 Section 2. Section 59A-53-15 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 17 1984, Chapter 127, Section 986, as amended) is amended to 18 read:

19 "59A-53-15. APPROPRIATION FROM STATE TREASURY.--All 20 money ~~[which]~~ that from time to time is deposited in the 21 state treasury and credited to the fire protection fund is 22 appropriated to the ~~[corporation]~~ commission for the use of 23 the state fire marshal for the purposes set out in Chapter 24 59A, Article 53 NMSA 1978 and shall be distributed by the 25 state treasurer and expended as provided in that article.
Hereafter, all sums in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for pro rata distribution plus seventy-five

1 percent of the approved state fire marshal budget for the 2 succeeding fiscal year plus the amount certified to be 3 distributed as provided in that article plus the amount to be 4 transferred to the hazardous materials task force fund
5 pursuant to Section 59A-53-6.1 NMSA 1978 shall be credited to 6 the general fund on or before June 30 of each fiscal year."

7 Section 3. EMERGENCY.--It is necessary for the public
8 peace, health and safety that this act take effect
9 immediately.
