SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Joint Memorial 24 resolves that the Courts, Corrections and Criminal Justice Committee study and review the mandate that New Mexico counties provide for the expenses of certain agencies. The Committee shall also work with the New Mexico Association of counties, District Courts, District Attorneys, juvenile probation and parole officers and the Administrative Office of the Courts to develop guidelines detailing the respective financial responsibilities of the counties and the state regarding the provision and maintenance of office space for certain state agencies.
