SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Joint Memorial 62 requests that school districts review their student discipline policies and consider for adoption school safety initiatives from other school districts in New Mexico and around the country.

Significant Issues

The memorial addresses an issue of great concern and urges school districts incorporate in their local policies those which been found effective in other school districts.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

None apparent.

ADMINISTRATIVE IMPLICATIONS

None at the state level. School districts are requested to establish, or repeat, a process that should have been used when district policies were first adopted.
