SUMMARY

Synopsis of Memorial

House Memorial 11 request the human services department contract with "Children, Our Hidden Treasures," a nonprofit corporation working with single parents and their children, to design and administer a pilot project for assemblies in the schools to show the reality and hardship to both children and their parents caused by single parenting as well as the fiscal implications to government.

Significant Issues

The state budget includes $625.0 in TANF grant funds for the GRADS program, which also works with schools to prevent teen pregnancies.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

There is no immediate fiscal implication since the memorial recommends that the human services department contract with the nonprofit corporation, rather than provide an appropriation.
