(2) brochures or telephone numbers for agencies that provide adoption services or counseling services; and

(3) written information regarding who to contact at the children, youth and families department if the parent decides to seek reunification with the infant.

D. No later than twenty-four hours after receiving an infant in accordance with the provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act, a hospital shall inform the children, youth and families department that the infant has been left at the hospital.

Section 5. [NEW MATERIAL] RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CHILDREN, YOUTH AND FAMILIES DEPARTMENT. --

A. The children, youth and families department shall be deemed to have immediate custody of an infant who has been left at a hospital according to the provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act.

B. Upon receiving a report of an infant left at a hospital pursuant to the provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act, the children, youth and families department shall immediately conduct an investigation, pursuant to the provisions of the Abuse and Neglect Act.

C. When an infant is taken into custody by the children, youth and families department, the department shall make reasonable efforts to determine whether the infant is an Indian child. If the infant is an Indian child, pre-adoptive placement and adoptive placement of the Indian child shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 32A-5-5 NMSA 1978 regarding Indian child placement preferences.

D. The children, youth and families department shall perform public outreach functions necessary to educate the public about the Safe Haven for Infants Act, including developing literature about that act and distributing it to hospitals.

E. An infant left at a hospital in accordance with the provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act shall presumptively be deemed eligible and enrolled for medicaid benefits and services.

Section 6. [NEW MATERIAL] CONFIDENTIALITY. -- Information regarding a person leaving an infant at a hospital in compliance with the Safe Haven for Infants Act or information received during an abuse or neglect investigation by the children, youth and families department shall remain confidential, pursuant to the confidentiality section of the Abuse and Neglect Act.

Section 7. [NEW MATERIAL] PROCEDURE IF REUNIFICATION IS SOUGHT. --

A. If a person seeks reunification with the infant previously left at the hospital and the person's DNA matches the infant's DNA, that person shall have standing to participate in all proceedings regarding the infant pursuant to the provisions of the Abuse and Neglect Act.

B. There shall be no presumption of abuse or neglect against a person seeking reunification pursuant to Subsection A of this section provided that the person seeks reunification within thirty days of the date the infant was left at a hospital in accordance with the provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act.

Section 8. [NEW MATERIAL] IMMUNITY. -- A hospital and its staff are immune from criminal liability and civil liability for accepting an infant in compliance with the provisions of the Safe Haven for Infants Act but not for subsequent negligent medical care or treatment of the infant.

Section 9. Section 30-6-1 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1973, Chapter 360, Section 10, as amended) is amended to read:

"30-6-1. ABANDONMENT OR ABUSE OF A CHILD. --

A. As used in this section:

(1) "child" means a person who is less than eighteen years of age;

(2) "neglect" means that a child is without proper parental care and control of subsistence, education, medical or other care or control necessary for his well-being because of the faults or habits of his parents, guardian or custodian or their neglect or refusal, when able to do so, to provide them; and

(3) "negligently" refers to criminal negligence and means that a person knew or should have known of the danger involved and acted with a reckless disregard for the safety or health of the child.

B. Abandonment of a child consists of the parent, guardian or custodian of a child intentionally leaving or abandoning the child under circumstances whereby the child may or does suffer neglect. Whoever commits abandonment of a child is guilty of a misdemeanor, unless the abandonment results in the child's death or great bodily harm, in which case he is guilty of a second degree felony.

C. A parent, guardian or custodian who leaves an infant less than ninety days old in compliance with the Safe Haven for Infants Act shall not be prosecuted for abandonment of a child.

~~[C.]~~ D. Abuse of a child consists of a person knowingly, intentionally or negligently, and without justifiable cause, causing or permitting a child to be:

(1) placed in a situation that may endanger the child's life or health;

- (2) tortured, cruelly confined or cruelly punished;
or
(3) exposed to the inclemency of the weather.

Whoever commits abuse of a child [~~which~~] that does not result in the child's death or great bodily harm is, for a first offense, guilty of a third degree felony and for second and subsequent offenses is guilty of a second degree felony. If the abuse results in great bodily harm or death to the child, he is guilty of a first degree felony.

E. A person who leaves an infant less than ninety days old at a hospital may be prosecuted for abuse of the infant for actions of the person occurring before the infant was left at the hospital. "
