SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Bill 183 appropriates $539.2 from the general fund to the Fourth Judicial District Attorney to continue prosecuting cases that arose from the 1999 riot at the Guadalupe County correctional facility.

Significant Issues

The Fourth Judicial Attorney requested $539.1 from the general fund as a special appropriation for FY03 to continue funding the prison prosecution unit. The LFC initially recommended funding this request with $250.0 from the general fund and the executive did not recommend funding this request. However, on January 26, 2002, HAFC took action to amend HB2 in which it recommended appropriating $350.0 to the Fourth Judicial District Attorney for the prison prosecution unit.

The prison prosecution unit is expected to be in existence at least a few more years as the Fourth Judicial District Attorney prosecutes the cases stemming from the 1999 riot at the Guadalupe

County correctional facility. AODA has indicated that without the appropriation provided in SB 183, the Fourth Judicial District Attorney's ability to continue the operation of the prison prosecution unit would be adversely affected.

Additionally, the Public Defender Department (PDD) has responded to SB 183 by indicating that the bill does not appropriate any funding to PDD, an agency with an adversarial role against the Fourth Judicial District Attorney on the issue of the cases stemming from the 1999 riot at the Guadalupe County correctional facility.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

The appropriation of $539.2 contained in this bill is a non-recurring expense to the general fund. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of FY03 shall revert to the general fund.

DUPLICATION

SB 183 duplicates HB 189.
