SENATE BILL 153

46TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2004

INTRODUCED BY

Richard C. Martinez

AN ACT

MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO STUDY THE FEASIBILITY OF ESTABLISHING A CERTIFIED MOBILE LIVESTOCK SLAUGHTER UNIT TO OPERATE IN RIO ARRIBA COUNTY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. APPROPRIATION. -- Two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) is appropriated from the general fund to the local government division of the department of finance and administration for expenditure in fiscal year 2005 to support the north central economic development district in conducting a feasibility study, developing a business plan and planning the construction of a certified mobile livestock slaughter unit to serve small-scale livestock growers in rural Rio Arriba county, which will enable them to market meat to local markets in New Mexico and to demonstrate the feasibility
