1 ($300,000) for all past and future medical and medically
2 related expenses arising out of a single occurrence; and

3 (3) the sum of four hundred thousand dollars
4 ($400,000) to any person for any number of claims arising out
5 of a single occurrence for all damages other than property
6 damage and medical and medically related expenses as permitted
7 under the Tort Claims Act; or

8 (4) the sum of seven hundred fifty thousand 9 dollars ($750,000) for all claims other than medical or 10 medically related expenses arising out of a single occurrence.

11 B. Interest shall be allowed on judgments against a 12 governmental entity or public employee for a tort for which 13 immunity has been waived under the Tort Claims Act at a rate 14 equal to two percentage points above the prime rate as 15 published in the Wall Street Journal on the date of the entry 16 of the judgment. Interest shall be computed daily from the 17 date of the entry of the judgment until the date of payment and 18 shall be compounded annually.

19 [~~B.~~] C. No judgment against a governmental entity 20 or public employee for any tort for which immunity has been 21 waived under the Tort Claims Act shall include an award for 22 exemplary or punitive damages or for interest prior to 23 judgment."
