1 Law;

2 (2) upon the express consent of the enrollee
3 or applicant;

4 (3) as authorized by federal or state statute
5 or rule, including the privacy standard promulgated pursuant to 6 the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act
7 of 1996;

8 [~~(3)~~] (4) pursuant to [~~statute or~~] court order
9 for the production of evidence or the discovery thereof; or

10 [~~(4)~~] (5) in the event of claim or litigation
11 between [~~such~~] the person and the health maintenance 12 organization in which [~~such~~] the data or information is 13 pertinent.

14 B. A health maintenance organization shall be 15 entitled to claim any statutory privileges against disclosure
16 of information described in Subsection A of this section that 17 the provider who furnished the information to the health
18 maintenance organization is entitled to claim.

19 C. A person who in good faith and without malice
20 takes any action or makes any decision or recommendation as a 21 member, agent or employee of a health care review committee or 22 who furnishes any records, information or assistance to such a
23 committee shall not be subject to liability for civil damages 24 or any legal action in consequence of such action, nor shall

1 committee or the officers, directors, employees or agents of 2 [~~such~~] the health maintenance organization be liable for the 3 activities of any such person. The provisions of this 4 subsection do not relieve any person of liability arising from 5 treatment of a patient.

6 D. The information considered by a health care
7 review committee and the records of [~~their~~] its actions and 8 proceedings shall be confidential and not subject to subpoena
9 or order to produce except in proceedings before the 10 appropriate state licensing or certifying agency or in an 11 appeal, if permitted, from the committee's findings or 12 recommendations. No member of a health care review committee
13 or officer, director or other member of a health maintenance 14 organization or its staff engaged in assisting [~~such~~] the 15 committee, or any person assisting or furnishing information to 16 [~~such~~] the committee may be subpoenaed to testify in any 17 judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding if [~~such~~] the subpoena is 18 based solely on such activities.

19 E. Information considered by a health care review
20 committee and the records of its actions and proceedings that 21 are used pursuant to Subsection D of this section by a state
22 licensing or certifying agency or in an appeal shall be kept
23 confidential and shall be subject to the same provision 24 concerning discovery and use in legal actions as are the 25 original information and records in the possession and control

1 of a health care review committee.

2 F. To fulfill its obligations under Section
3 59A-46-7 NMSA 1978, the health maintenance organization shall 4 have access to treatment records and other information
5 pertaining to the diagnosis, treatment or health status of any 6 enrollee. "

7 Section 2. TEMPORARY PROVISION--PURPOSE--APPLICABILITY.--

8 A. The purpose of this act is to not change the 9 exceptions for disclosing information by health maintenance
10 organizations but to clarify the law and the intent of the law
11 as it existed prior to the effective date of this act.

12 B. This act applies to disclosures made both before 13 and after its effective date.
