SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Memorial Bill 2 would create the United States public academy. The United States faces serious domestic and international problems in the twenty-first century and needs more young people to go into public service as teachers, police officers, nonprofit leaders and other important public jobs. A public service academy will provide a consistent flow of highly qualified, service-oriented young leaders. A public service academy will give service minded young people the opportunity to serve their country without enduring financial hardship. A public service academy will offer a unique campus that is devoted to public service that will bring young people from every part of the country to live, study and serve together. A public service academy will build a corps of civilian leaders who have the moral character, academic training and leadership experience necessary to serve the American people honorably and effectively and who are committed to devoting their lives to public service.
