HOUSE MEMORIAL 34

48TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 2007

INTRODUCED BY

Mimi Stewart

A MEMORIAL

DECLARING NOVEMBER 1, 2007 "READ TO A CHILD DAY".

WHEREAS, a team of fourth- and fifth-grade students at La Union elementary school in the Gadsden independent school district conducted a community literacy initiative and, from what they learned, they wanted to give every third-grade student in New Mexico a book; and

WHEREAS, this team of students began research on New Mexico authors, found more than forty authors, developed a rating rubric and narrowed their list down to fifteen; and

WHEREAS, the students contacted a group of adults who were representative of the state and invited them to be part of a selection committee using their rubric to narrow the list of books to six; and

WHEREAS, the students invited the governor to make the

1 final decision on a book, and he selected "Santero's Miracle"
2 by Rudolfo Anaya, with a copy to be given to each third-grade 3 student; and

4 WHEREAS, the book will be accompanied by a web-based 5 teacher curriculum and a hard copy of a parent curriculum that 6 will be tied to the New Mexico curriculum standards; and

7 WHEREAS, the governor selected November 1, 2007 to 8 distribute the books to every third-grade student; and

9 WHEREAS, November 1 marks national family literacy day and 10 approximately eight thousand literacy programs will hold
11 readings, workshops and family activities across the country; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, reading aloud is a time-honored tradition for 14 parents, caregivers and children, especially in a child's 15 formative years; and

16 WHEREAS, reading has a lifelong impact on a child's 17 learning experiences, developmental progress and even social 18 interaction;

19 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 20 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO that November 1, 21 2007 be declared "Read to a Child Day" to celebrate the 22 importance of reading; and

23 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be 24 transmitted to the secretary of public education and the 25 governor.
