SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Bill 182 appropriates $1,000.0 from the general fund to the Board of Regents of the University of New Mexico to match an equal amount in donations for the establishment of the Pamela Minzner professorship at the School of Law. The appropriation is for expenditure in Fiscal Year 2009 and subsequent fiscal years.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

The appropriation of $1,000.0 contained in this bill is a non-recurring expense to the general fund. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of any fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund.

The HED states that this appropriation was not submitted by UNM to the Higher Education Department for review and is not included in the Department's funding recommendation for FY09.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

The HED states:

Justice Pamela B. Minzner graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio in 1965 and Harvard Law School in 1968. She practiced law in Massachusetts before moving to New Mexico, where she was in private practice before joining the faculty of the University of New Mexico School of Law from 1973 to 1984. At UNM, she was loved by students and fellow professors and received the highly esteemed Faculty Award in 1977 and 1981.

Justice Minzner was appointed to the New Mexico Court of Appeals by Governor Toney Anaya in 1984, where she served for a decade and was the Chief Judge from 1993 to 1994.

Justice Pamela Minzner was appointed to the New Mexico Supreme Court by Governor Bruce King in 1994, and was elected to serve an eight year term in the general election of 2002. In January 1999, Justice Minzner was the first woman elected by her colleagues to the position of Chief Justice of the New Mexico Supreme Court. She served as Chief Justice until January, 2001 and continued to serve as Senior Justice until her death, August 31, 2007.

Justice Minzner was one of the most highly respected and admired members of New Mexico's legal community and received many awards and honors, including the State Bar of New Mexico's Outstanding Judicial Service Award in 1992 and the State Bar of New Mexico's Professionalism Award in 2007, an award given to a judge or attorney who most exemplifies the qualities of professionalism.

RELATIONSHIP

Senate Bill 182 is related to House Bill 317. SB 182 requires a match of an equal amount of the appropriation in donations for the establishment of the Pamela Minzner professorship at the College of Law rather than the direct establishment of the endowed chair in House Bill 317 which would appropriate $1,500.0.

OTHER SUBSTANTIVE ISSUES

The HED notes that current funding allows institutions to secure state funds as a match after raising 50% of the endowed professorship. Adoption of this bill could undermine that process and encourage other institutions to seek funded chairs and professorships.
