recognition or similar sentiment shall be a certificate of a design [which] that is both appropriate and aesthetically sensitive to the expression being extended and to the dignity of the legislature, which certificate for each category of expression shall be uniform in design and expression except for necessary names, addresses and dates.

B. No bill, resolution or memorial shall be used for official expressions of condolence, congratulations, [or acknowledgements of achievement] recognition or similar sentiment, and the legislative council service shall not draft such a bill, resolution or memorial.

[C. The procedure of adopting and issuing certificates of condolence, congratulations or acknowledgements of achievement shall be:

(1) the member shall submit the appropriate name and address and type of expression desired on the certificate to the chief clerk of the house of the legislature of which he is a member;

(2) without further action, the chief clerk shall consecutively number such request for each session, enter it in an official certificate register and transmit such request to the chairman of the rules committee of that house;

(3) the rules committee shall verify the authenticity of the request and shall report to its parent body those names verified and approved for each category of certification; legislature is in session and upon any legislative day during the last week of the session, following that order of business in each house pertaining to the reports of committees, the chief clerk of each house shall read all reports on hand of the rules committee serving that house pertaining to such certification, and the house of the legislature receiving the committee report shall vote on the approval of the committee report and the sentiments expressed therein. Such approval shall be an authorization to mail a certificate to the family or individual as the case may be; and

(5) in the publication of the session laws, the names of those persons who were the subject of certification shall be collectively shown, according to the certifying house and nature of sentiment expressed.

C. The certificates issued by each house shall be shown in the respective journals of each house or available in the respective chief clerk's office of each house."; and
