SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Memorial 28 requests declaration of the third Saturday in May as “Celtic Heritage Day” in New Mexico.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

The preservation and study of Celtic culture, including sports, music, art, history, folklore, dance and literature enriches the lives of residents in New Mexico. The 25th annual Rio Grande Valley Celtic Festival has been selected to host the masters world championship, bringing athletes above forty from all over the world to compete in traditional games of strength and skill on May 18, 2013.
