SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Bill 136 requires lobbyists to include the description of the legislation and legislative or administrative issue for which the lobbyist is employed.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

The SOS writes:

The lobbyist reporting module of the current campaign reporting system (CFIS) would need to be modified in order to allow a description of the lobbyist service being provided as part of the registration process. This change is not expected to be difficult and could most likely be accommodated under the existing CFIS maintenance and support contract with little to no fiscal impact.
