A MEMORIAL

OUTLINING THE HISTORY OF AGUA FRIA VILLAGE IN SANTA FE COUNTY AND REQUESTING THE ASSISTANCE OF STATE AGENCIES IN DETERMINING IF A MUSEUM IS JUSTIFIED IN DOCUMENTING THE HISTORY.

WHEREAS, the Agua Fria village area has been known as Pueblo Quemado, Pindi Pueblo and Cieneguitas, and is generally considered to be the area from arroyo de los frijoles on the north to arroyo de los chamisos on the south and from the villa de Santa Fe league on the east to the Cieneguilla land grant on the west; and

WHEREAS, this area has had human habitation on its fertile Santa Fe river alluvial plains since at least seven thousand years before the common era; and

WHEREAS, the native peoples may have graded the land to create an irrigation system, and the first Europeans recognized the area's potential for agriculture; and

WHEREAS, archaeological digs done under Agua Fria road in 2009 for sewer extensions have indicated that two prehistoric settlements under the Pindi Pueblo site may date back to three thousand years before the common era; and

WHEREAS, el camino real de tierra adentro, also known as the royal road to the interior lands, brought the first expeditions to New Mexico, and, beginning in 1598, the first

1 colonists under Juan de Onate; and

2 WHEREAS, el camino real de tierra adentro was an artery
3 of commerce and travel, joining Spain's colonial capital at 4 Mexico City to the northern frontier of Santa Fe and spanning 5 one thousand six hundred miles; and

6 WHEREAS, a number of Native American routes ran along el 7 camino real de tierra adentro from the Aztec empire in Mexico 8 to the turquoise mines in los Cerrillos; and

9 WHEREAS, earlier Native American trading routes ran from 10 Mexico City to the pueblos of the valle de Rio Grande, then 11 on to Chaco canyon and California; and

12 WHEREAS, el camino real de tierra adentro is recognized 13 by the federal government as a national historic trail; and

14 WHEREAS, el camino real de tierra adentro has 15 international significance and is recognized throughout the 16 United States, Mexico and Central and South American 17 countries where other caminos reales exist; and

18 WHEREAS, the original route of el camino real de tierra 19 adentro runs through the heart of the traditional village of 20 Agua Fria, on the present-day streets of Agua Fria road and 21 junta del alamo, just past the ojos de San Isidro; and

22 WHEREAS, the actual name of "Agua Fria" is undocumented 23 but residents speculate that it is from weary travelers
24 splashing their faces with cold water from the Santa Fe
25 river, the first mountain stream they would have encountered

1 on their journey from the south; and

2 WHEREAS, in 1776, Fray Francisco Atanacio Dominguez gave 3 a census count to his superiors listing Agua Fria with fifty-4 seven families and two hundred ninety-seven people; and

5 WHEREAS, trade and travel on el camino real de tierra 6 adentro shaped individual lives and the traditional historic 7 community of Agua Fria and greatly affected its settlement 8 and development as a farming community; and

9 WHEREAS, under the American occupation declared in Santa 10 Fe on August 19, 1846, United States Army brigadier general 11 Stephen Watts Kearney and other soldiers used el camino real 12 de tierra adentro through Agua Fria village; and

13 WHEREAS, San Isidro Catholic church was constructed 14 along the road in 1835 and schoolhouses were constructed 15 along the road in the 1890s; and

16 WHEREAS, the Charles M. Probst remount station, situated 17 in present day lugar de Padilla, was a stagecoach resting 18 place and inn along el camino real de tierra adentro before 19 its entrance into Santa Fe; and

20 WHEREAS, delegations from Native American tribes 21 visiting the federal government offices in Santa Fe camped in 22 the Agua Fria area; and

23 WHEREAS, in a 2012 proclamation, the Santa Fe county
24 board of county commissioners recognized Agua Fria road
25 through the historic village of Agua Fria as the original

1 route of el camino real de tierra adentro and acknowledged
2 the route's significant impact on the development of Agua 3 Fria village and the surrounding areas; and

4 WHEREAS, starting in 2013, the residents of Agua Fria
5 village conducted a series of oral history interviews of the 6 elders for the New Mexico historical records advisory board; 7 and

8 WHEREAS, an Agua Fria gateway monument was completed in 9 2015 with design assistance from the national park service 10 and the support of Santa Fe county; and

11 WHEREAS, the gateway monument is constructed with mud-12 plastered adobes made by the residents and a photo display of 13 historic photographs; and

14 WHEREAS, in 2016, the residents of Agua Fria village
15 developed an exhibit of photographs, stories and antique farm 16 equipment on display at the historic Santa Fe foundation's el 17 Zaguan gallery; and

18 WHEREAS, a historic structures and places survey was 19 completed by Agua Fria residents and the national park
20 service, based on the New Mexico historic preservation 21 division's 1983 study;

22 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 23 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the economic 24 development department and the cultural affairs department be 25 requested to study the possibility and economic benefits of

1 creating a museum commemorating the history of el camino real 2 de tierra adentro in the Agua Fria village area; and

3 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the economic development
4 department and the cultural affairs department be requested
5 to meet with or otherwise involve representatives of the city
6 of Santa Fe, the national park service, residents of Agua 7 Fria village and other interested parties; and

8 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the economic development
9 department and the cultural affairs department report 10 recommendations to the appropriate interim legislative 11 committee by August 1, 2018; and

12 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be 13 transmitted to the secretary of economic development, the 14 secretary of cultural affairs and the president of the Agua 15 Fria village association.
