HOUSE MEMORIAL 7

55TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 2021

INTRODUCED BY

Ambrose Castellano and Roger Montoya

A MEMORIAL

RECOGNIZING HISPANICS ENJOYING CAMPING, HUNTING, AND THE OUTDOORS AND SUPPORTING A NEW MEXICO PUBLIC LANDS CONSERVATION LEADERSHIP COUNCIL TO HELP ELEVATE THE VITAL IMPORTANCE OF HISPANIC CULTURE, TRADITIONS AND PERSPECTIVES IN STRENGTHENING THE ADVANCEMENT OF THE CONSERVATION OF PUBLIC LANDS AND WATERS
FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

WHEREAS, New Mexico is rooted in a rich and multicultural history, with forty-seven percent of the population having Hispanic ancestry; and

WHEREAS, Hispanics have a strong connection to the nation's diverse landscapes and practice centuries-old traditions, such as fishing, hunting, farming, ranching and wood, plant and piñon nut gathering, that require the protection of public lands and waters; and

1           WHEREAS, the Hispano customs of caring for and cultivating
2 the land responsibly and governing water for communities
3 through acequias are foundational to New Mexican heritage; and

4           WHEREAS, many New Mexico watersheds provide critical water 5 resources to communities, including municipal, domestic and 6 agricultural users, and provide clean water to numerous ancient 7 and agriculturally and culturally significant acequia systems;
8 and

9           WHEREAS, querencia, or love for the land, is a deeply held 10 value that connects southwestern Hispanics to a past, present 11 and future sense of belonging and purpose, is a principle that 12 prioritizes conservation for future generations and is a pillar 13 of what the group Hispanics enjoying camping, hunting, and the 14 outdoors, more commonly known as HECHO, is founded on; and

15           WHEREAS, HECHO was established in the southwest and was 16 founded to empower Hispanic leaders to engage their communities 17 in the conservation of public lands; and

18           WHEREAS, HECHO provides a platform for Hispanic voices to 19 be heard with respect to the protection of public lands, 20 healthy watersheds, clean air and robust wildlife habitats; and

21           WHEREAS, HECHO, in working toward building a robust public 22 lands conservation leadership council in New Mexico, encourages 23 everyone to join and support this effort and HECHO's mission;
24 and

25           WHEREAS, there is a need for effective policies that

1 safeguard public lands for all; and

2 WHEREAS, Hispanos endeavor to continue to enjoy, and 3 practice and pass down, cultural traditions that depend on 4 public lands; and

5 WHEREAS, Hispanic leaders endeavor to be widely recognized 6 for contributions to public land conservation;

7 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 8 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the importance
9 of public participation of all New Mexicans, including Hispanic
10 New Mexicans, in decisions and processes concerning public 11 lands and waters be affirmed by the legislature; and

12 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the legislature express 13 support for HECHO in the creation of a public lands 14 conservation council of Hispanic leaders to build capacity and 15 create a formalized network of Hispanic public lands leaders to 16 increase participation and representation of Hispanics in such 17 matters; and

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the legislature recognize the 19 important role that HECHO fills in ensuring that Hispanic
20 Americans and Hispano cultural and traditional uses of the land 21 are included in decisions about public lands and waters; and

22 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the legislature recognize 23 HECHO as a group that connects and unites Hispanic leaders to 24 engage their communities in the conservation of public lands
25 and waters and fosters strong, culturally rich communities
