1 shall:

2 (1) administer the public health and climate 3 resiliency fund to assist local communities in preparing for 4 and responding to public health emergencies related to climate 5 change and extreme weather;

6 (2) help improve interagency collaboration
7 focused on health equity, reducing health impacts of extreme
8 weather and climate adaptation in New Mexico;

9 (3) assist in the formulation of concrete,
10 coordinated and cohesive action plans supporting local 11 communities in building health resiliency to future climate
12 impacts;

13 (4) provide climate and public health
14 expertise to assist local community planning in:

15 (a) making health-informed decisions
16 about current and future climate impacts;

17 (b) integrating the latest climate and 18 public health science into emergency preparedness programs; and

19 (c) accessing federal and other funds
20 for climate adaptation; and

21 (5) facilitate meaningful community engagement
22 within communities most harmed, or determined by climate
23 science as most likely to be harmed, by extreme weather
24 events."

25 SECTION 2. A new section of the Public Health Act is

1 enacted to read:

2 "[NEW MATERIAL] PUBLIC HEALTH AND CLIMATE RESILIENCY FUND
3 CREATED.--

4 A. The "public health and climate resiliency fund"
5 is created as a reverting fund in the state treasury. The fund
6 consists of appropriations, gifts, grants, donations, income
7 from investment of the fund and any other money distributed or 8 otherwise allocated to the fund. The department shall 9 administer the fund. Money in the fund is appropriated to the 10 department for the purposes set forth in Subsection B of this 11 section. Disbursements from the fund shall be made by warrant 12 of the secretary of finance and administration pursuant to 13 vouchers signed by the secretary of health or the secretary's 14 authorized representative.

15 B. Money in the public health and climate 16 resiliency fund may be used by the department to make grants of 17 up to two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to a
18 political subdivision of the state or an Indian nation, tribe
19 or pueblo for the purposes of preparing for and responding to 20 public health emergencies related to extreme weather and other
21 climate impacts.

22 C. The secretary shall prioritize grant
23 applications that:

24 (1) emphasize planning, projects and
25 activities to benefit people in low-income and disadvantaged

1 communities;

2 (2) provide for integration of public health
3 concerns and recommendations with other local emergency and 4 climate adaptation plans, projects and activities;

5 (3) emphasize planning, projects and
6 activities that are also eligible for grant funds from federal 7 programs or help New Mexico become eligible for federal funds;
8 and

9 (4) involve local health councils as direct
10 participants in the planning process.

11 D. Not less than fifty percent of the total grant 12 funds approved by the secretary shall be awarded to political 13 subdivisions with total human populations equal to or less than 14 one hundred thousand.

15 E. There shall be no requirement for matching funds
16 for eligibility for grant applications pursuant to this 17 section."

18 SECTION 3. APPROPRIATIONS.--

19 A. One million one hundred thousand dollars
20 ($1,100,000) is appropriated from the general fund to the 21 department of health for expenditure in fiscal year 2024 to 22 support the statewide public health and climate program within 23 the environmental health epidemiology bureau of the 24 epidemiology and response division of the department of health.
25 Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of

.223454.1

1 fiscal year 2024 shall revert to the general fund.

2 B. Five million dollars ($5,000,000) is 3 appropriated from the general fund to the department of health
4 for expenditure in fiscal years 2024 through 2028 for the 5 public health and climate resiliency fund. Any unexpended or 6 unencumbered balance remaining at the end of fiscal year 2028
7 shall revert to the general fund.
