SENATE MEMORIAL 8

42ND LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 1996

INTRODUCED BY

PATRICK H. LYONS

A MEMORIAL

REQUESTING THAT THE SENATE SING ALONG WITH A LITTLE DITTY ENTITLED "HOME OF THE STRANGE", TO BE SUNG TO THE TUNE OF THAT TIME-HONORED STANDARD, "HOME ON THE RANGE".

WHEREAS,

Oh, give me a home,
where the P. C. folks roam
And buffalo get Clinton's health care.

Where federal court
is the forum for sport.
And hunting will soon be a tort.

REFRAIN

Home, home of the strange,

where the judge and the litigants play.

Where never is heard

a shot at the herd.

And the buffalo die of old age.

Where hunting for game

once brought Indians fame.

Now they shoot craps and not buffalo.

Today it's blackjack

and gaming compacts.

Oh, roadblocks may soon stop the flow.

REFRAIN

Home, home of the strange,

where the judge and the litigants play.

Where never is heard

a shot at the herd.

And the buffalo die of old age.

Let felons go free

and prisoners flee.

Watch youngsters shoot innocent crowds.

But have a buffalo hunt

and the Greens pull a stunt.

For humans count less than a cow.

REFRAIN

Home, home of the strange,
where the judge and the litigants play.
Where never is heard
a shot at the herd.
And the buffalo die of old age;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE
OF NEW MEXICO that a copy of this memorial be transmitted to Grove Burnett, lead counsel for the buffalo.
