HOUSE MEMORIAL 4

43RD LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 1997

INTRODUCED BY

PATSY G. TRUJILLO

A MEMORIAL

PROCLAIMING FEBRUARY 17, 1997 AS HUMAN NEEDS AWARENESS DAY.

WHEREAS, it is evident to all of us every day of the year that children, senior citizens, people with disabilities, those on welfare, victims of domestic violence, teenagers attempting to forge their individuality, Native Americans standing sovereign ground, veterans and countless others have unmet human needs; and

WHEREAS, although we attempt to address a fraction of those needs in the course of our days in the legislature, many needs necessarily go unmet; and

WHEREAS, much of the daily struggle consists of widening and deepening our understanding of the natural diversity that exists among people and coming to an acceptance of the diversity of their needs;
